

Lemaster & Isaacs To Wed

Jacob Ray Isaacs & Chloe Alice Lemaster

Chloe Alice Lemaster and Jacob Ray Isaacs would like to invite their family and friends to attend their wedding on Saturday, the 20th of July, at Tabors Creek Missionary Baptist Church in Fort Gay, West Virginia. Reception will be immediately following at the Lawrence County Community Center. Both Chloe and Jacob graduated from Alice Lloyd College.

Jacob is the son of Earnest & Rebecca Isaacs. He is self-employed. Chloe is the daughter of David & Colene Lemaster. She will be attending classes at the University of Kentucky where they will be living.

Foster Parents of the Month

Jeremy and Chasity Peavie have been fostering since 2011 and are dedicated to helping others. They have opened their home to several children and make the children feel welcome and loved in their home. Jeremy and Chasity stated they became foster parents because of their love for children and helping families in time of need. They feel opening their hearts and home to children has been a wonderful experience and a blessing. The Peavie's help keep children connected to attachments and also build new connections. They enjoy working in partnership with others to meet the needs of the children. The Peavies are foster parent mentors and work with other foster parents. Chasity Peavie is a member of the training team and encourages anyone that would like information about becoming a foster/adoptive parent to contact the Cabinet for Health and Family Services at (606) 723-5146 or (859) 245-5488.

An American Legion Rider, Charles Profitt, received a trophy for having the oldest motorcycle in the car and bike show on Saturday.

Peggy Kayse, right, received her 60-year membership pin at the May meeting of Irvine Chapter #357, Order of the Eastern Star. Treasurer Phyllis Noland presented Peggy with the pin and expressed the Chapter's appreciation to her for being a faithful member all these years. Peggy is a past Worthy Matron of the Chapter.

A winner in the motorcycle division of Post 79's car and bike show on Saturday. It was followed by a burn-out.

Jimmy Bryant shows off his trophy he won in the burn-out at the American Legion Post 79 Car Show on Saturday afternoon. Jimmy was declared the winner after a run-off.

Red was a popular color for cars and trucks at the American Legion Car Show on Saturday. Car owners were challenged by the rain which stopped about the time the trophies were presented.

A 1965 red Ford Mustang Fastback owned by Tobo Bryant was a winner at the car show.

An antique truck showed it could still compete with the best in the burn-off.

Another antique successfully competed in the burn-out.

Car & Bike Winners

- Oldest Cycle - Charles Profitt
- Best Bike -- Don Brandenburg
- Oldest Car -- Jimmy Bryant
- Honor Guard Choice -- Bob Foster
- 2004 Red Chevy
- GM 60 -- Robert Servell
- GM 93 Corvette -- Larry Muncie
- GM 69 Chevy -- Mary Morton
- GM truck 72 -- Mike Abney
- Ford Class 37 -- Rick Ballard
- 01 Ford Mustang -- Chester Horn
- 66 Ford Galaxie -- Jerry Chaney
- 65 Ford Mustang Fastback -- Tobo Bryant
- 52 Chevy Skyline -- Richard Henry
- 48 Ford -- Glen & Jenny Snowden
- Best Mopower -- Clyde Young
- 59 Rambler (Nash) -- Marvin Newton
- 70 Ford -- Al Duncan
- 55 Chevy Best GM -- Ken Barger
- 55 Chevy Pickup -- David Stevens
- 35 Chevy - Jerry Rice
- Commander's Choice -- Jerry Rice