Early August is the time to consider stockpiling cool-season grass pastures. You can take advantage of good growing conditions to obtain high-quality pasture for late fall and early winter grazing. Stockpiling helps broaden the pasture season for the cow herd, reduces feed and labor costs by lowering the amount of hay needed, and provides an ideal location for the beef cow herd to winter and calve.

It's really easy to begin to stockpile. Select a paddock you have grazed or mowed to 3-4 inches in height (new growth is necessary for best yields). Remove the cattle from the selected paddock, apply nitrogen fertilizer, and allow grass to accumulate growth until November or December. Then, put cattle on the pasture one section at a time until they've finished grazing the whole field. Remember to take soil samples for analyses to determine pasture requirements for phosphorus, potassium and lime. You'll need this information to renovate with clover in the spring.

There are a number of forages you can feed during the stockpiling period from now until early November. These include sorghum-sudan hybrids, sudangrass, bermudagrass, grass-lespedeza and grass-legumes. Tall fescue and Kentucky bluegrass are the best grasses to stockpile in Kentucky.

Nitrogen and moisture are critical to successfully stockpiling grasses. Topdress at the rate of 40 to 60 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre for Kentucky bluegrass. Use 40 to 80 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre on tall fescue.

Yields can be very good when water is available during the stockpiling period. Tall fescue can produce two tons of dry matter up to late November. With adequate water producers can achieve 25 pounds of dry matter for each pound of nitrogen used. After frost, let cattle graze grass-legume fields quickly before plants deteriorate. Then, put animals on the stockpiled grass fields. For the most efficient use of stockpiled fields, establish a strip grazing system by using a temporary electric fence to section off areas of the field.

God's Way

We will have no excuse to offer on the day we stand before the KING and He says unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels..

When we know what God says in His word and we choose to overlook His commandments, that if we lived by, we would reap great rewards. However, from the disobedience of our own choosing not to live by His word, therefore we die.

For instance; God says in Exodus 20:15, "Thou shalt not steal." If we steal something and get caught we end up in jail, or facing the consequence of our choice to steal. This is reaping from disobedience to God's command.

After death we have no choice, but we are still judged by God's word. John 1:1, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." John 4:24, "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." When Jesus, the Word, appeared to the disciples in Luke 24:39, "Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have."

It seems to me, so called preachers today forget the plain fact that God is a spirit, His spirit overshadowed Mary, the mother of Jesus. (Luke 1:25) His spirit was a fire before Moses. Exodus 3:3. It was God a spirit that Samuel talked to about the people wanting a king. I Samuel chapter 8.

A spirit hath not flesh and bones. The flesh and bones was the covering for the Spirit when it was born of a woman. Matthew 1:23, "Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us."

If God is with us in the child Mary brought forth, then God is now manifesting His spirit in this flesh. You believed God made Adam and Eve. The first woman from Adam's rib, then you STOP. What happened?? Can't you see if God made male and female, He can also make a child inside a female and manifest and live through this (HIS) creation.

This body was created (by God) to be a sacrifice for the people who wanted to come back to Him. There was no way we could get back to God, except there be a sacrifice of blood offered. God says. I am a spirit and a spirit cannot die. I must create a body of flesh to die as a sacrifice for my peoples sins. First John 3:16, "Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us..."

Matthew 27:46, "46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

It was God (the spirit) that was being made known, or manifest, when Jesus walked on the water, turned water into wine, healed the sick, raised the dead, cast out devils, or any other miracle performed as Jesus walked the earth, in flesh. It was Jesus' body or the fleshly man, hanging on the cross to be our blood bought sacrifice, for atonement of our sins.

When God lifted His spirit from the body, (fleshly man, Jesus) life down here was over, for death had to have its work on the sacrifice being offered. God put His spirit back in Jesus body. Jesus came back to life, in a resurrected body. This is the same God who gives His spirit as the comforter to all who will receive it, (Him) by obeying the written Words of God.

I can only tell you what I know and understand. Come hear and learn from Ivan Smith, my pastor, who is a great man of God. He can teach you and has great understanding, and will answer your questions using God's written Word, the Bible, with the anointing of God. Haven't you had questions that for whatever reason, you still wonder if what you were told is actually what God said? Looking forward to seeing you.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Beyond The Gates of Death

by BOB CASEY, Preacher, Church of Christ

In Psalm 9:13 David wrote: "Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death." It seems that David had the hope and comfort from God even in the face of death. My question is: can we also have the hope and certainty of Job who said in chapters 19:23-27. "Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book! That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever! For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me." This passage is one of the most prophetic books within the Bible. Little did Job know it then, but a book would be written concerning all that he said, and we have it today, called the Bible, the word of God. This book is the only book in the world that can tell us what exists beyond the Gates of Death, because our Saviour entered into this death and came out victorious (Luke 23:43). In this verse even the repentant thief was granted again from the fear of death. Even the poor beggar Lazarus entered into that place of comfort (Luke 16:19). So our Saviour has the keys to the gates of death (Revelation 1:10-19). He alone holds the authority over the entry of this gate.

So then with this authority, he alone will dictate who goes where in death. A place of torment or a place of comfort. Revelation 14:9-13 reveals this. This the Bible tells us (Matthew 7:13-14) that we have a choice into which gate we will enter. So all are encouraged to choose the narrow gate which leads unto life. Another thing I know is that the church of the Lord will never enter into the gates of Death (Matthew 16:13-15). Our Lord makes this promise. Then today we are all faced with the reality of earthly death (Hebrews 9:27) Man's appointment unto death and judgment are already established. None shall escape It. II Corinthians 5:10 and Romans 14:10-12 tell us of this personal appearance before the judgment seat of Christ. This, according to Matthew 25:46, will be the day of eternal separation of mankind. Yes, there is a gate for the righteous after judgment is over and done. Revelation 22:14 "Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." Once eternity is established in this city of God, the gates will never be closed, (Revelation 21:21-27) for there will be nothing to fear forever. But today friend, we have not yet entered into the gates of death, but we will! So why not determine the outcome today, before death! If you will hear our Lord, believe on His word, repent by turning your life around, gladly confess Him before men as your Saviour, and then be baptized for the remission of your sins. Then you will have entered into his body, the church that shall never enter the gates of death. This is exciting news. Don't let your opportunity to have it pass you by.
