

Salato Wildlife Education Center hosts Wildlife Olympics Aug. 17

The Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources invites children to take part in the Wildlife Olympics from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 17, at the Salato Wildlife Education Center in Frankfort.

Participants can test their strengths and abilities at activities set up at select outdoor exhibits while learning about the capabilities of Kentucky's wildlife. Activities are designed for children ages 3 to 16. Participants will be divided into three age categories. Prizes will be awarded to the top three finishers in the grip strength, casting accuracy, long jump, timed race and archery events.

No registration is required. The event is included with general admission into the center.

The Salato Center is operated by the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. The center is located off U.S. 60, approximately 1 1/2 miles west of the U.S. 127 intersection. Look for the bronze deer statue at the entrance of the main Kentucky Fish and Wildlife campus.

Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. Salato is closed on Sunday, Monday and state holidays. Admission is $4 for adults and $2 for youth 5 to 18. Children under 5 are admitted free. The center also offers annual memberships for individuals and families.

Barred Owl Feeding

A barred owl, on a hunting expedition, came to my yard for dinner and nabbed a mourning dove. While barred owls prefer small mammals like mice, shrews, squirrels and moles, it is not unusual for them to prey on birds, especially during nesting season.
