

FFA Members Receive High Honors at the 84th State FFA Convention

With over 2,000 members and guests in attendance, the State FFA Convention was held in June at Rupp Arena in Lexington, KY. Members of the Estill County FFA Chapter in attendance were Timara Purdue, Taylor Masters, Kaitlyn Abshear (voting delegate), Alyssa Travis (voting delegate), Arthur Embry, Aimee Powell, and Daniella Powell.

Taylor Masters was chosen by the State FFA Association to serve on the Reporter Corps during the Convention. Taylor was recognized by the State Association and presented a plaque on stage for her service with State Reporter Corps for the three-day convention.

Daniella Powell received 2nd place in the State in the Diversified Horticulture Proficiency Contest, and received $250 in awards. She was selected as the Kentucky representative for the National Proficiency Contest and will compete at the 2013 National FFA Convention. Daniella is a 2012 graduate of Estill County High School and the daughter of Joyce Powell and Shelton Powell. Her Supervised Agriculture Experience (SAE) project work included volunteering as student worker at the Estill County High School greenhouse and working at Ravenna Florist and Greenhouse. Daniella was very involved in the local FFA chapter and also served as a chapter officer during high school.

Estill County FFA also received the prestigious Gold Emblem Rating by the State FFA Association. FFA chapters are rated annually based upon strict criteria related to member participation, chapter programs, and records. The chapter received a special plaque sponsored by the Kentucky Department of Agriculture in recognition of their achievements, service and success in 2012-2013.

Taylor Masters is recognized onstage at the annual State FFA Convention for her service in the FFA Association's Reporter Corps, which served during the 3-day convention.
