Slow Start to Lady Patriots Season

by MIKE WISEMAN
The Estill County Tribune

The start of another school year brings with it another season of Lady Patriots basketball.

These three groups of girls, 6th, 7th, and 8th grades, have fought hard this early season. Their records may not show a huge amount of success, but their improvement and fight increases with each game. Witnessing all but 1 game so far, I must admit, these girls leave it all on the floor.

The 6th grade's record stands currently at 3 wins and 3 losses. A road victory against Clark Moores on a last second steal and layup by LeAnn Lewis was an early highlight for this young group of girls as they continue to improve. If heart and desire won ball games, this team would be undefeated.

Members of the team are Lewis, Kaylee Riddell, Heather Walling, Lydia Mills, Callin (Fred) Smith, 5th grader Brittany Mason, and 4th graders Mia Hale and Macy Reed.

The 7th grade stands currently at 3 wins and 2 losses. A well played victory at Clark Moores, led by sharpshooting Megan Bellamy's 19 points, and a blowout at home against Highway 82 rival Powell County, have the 7th graders on the winning track. This team continues their winning ways from last year's conference runner up finish.

Members are Bellamy, Shatarra Stewart, Taylor Duechle, Amelia Farmer, Shelby Danyeur, and Kiely Flynn.

The 8th graders have seen their share of tough teams as their 2 win - 7 loss start shows. Two early season games with powerhouse

Powell County and a tough loss to Farristown in the Berea Invitational along with a hard fought game at Rockcastle have toughened these girls' skins in hope for a post season championship.

A 24-point win against Model and a hard fought victory over Caudill has fueled these girls for more victories as the season progresses.

Members are 4-year starter Sarah Wiseman, Savannah Brewer, LaTee (T.T.) Gordon, Shayla Gibson, Taylor Gibson, Briana Marcum, Coral Mullins, Callie Mullins, and Tilda Gordon.

Coaches Ruth Hughes, Bob Young, and Mike Long appreciate your support.

Come out and support these young ladies!!!

Next home game is: Thursday, August 29th vs Berea Games start @ 5:30 p.m.
