

Members of the Estill County High School Girls Golf Team, shown left to right, are Savannah Elam, Caroline Asher, Lyndsi Brewer, Kerrie Wolpert, Madison Sparks, Olivia Snowden, Jaedyn Webster, McKinley Meek, Makala Hensley, Sara Williams, Meredith Hardy, Keyairah Mitchell and Madeline Hardy. The team is coached by Michael Hardy.

Photo courtesy of Rhonda Brewer

ABOVE: #2 Trevor Jones attempted to take down the quarterback for the Morgan County Cougars on Friday night. The Engineers fell short to the Cougars with a final score of 22-13.

AT LEFT: The Engineers got a pep talk from coaches during a time out against Morgan County.

ABOVE: Ethan Webb jumped over a fallen Jackson County player on Saturday at Estill Springs Elementary in an attempt to make a touchdown for the Little 'Neers. The Little 'Neers kicked off the season on with a big win over Jackson County. The 5th/6th grade team beat Jackson County 22-7.

Ten of the Estill County FFA members traveled to Hardinsburg this summer to attend the FFA Leadership Training Center. Members participated in officer classes, member and chapter development activities, athletic groups, and rope courses. Michaela Walters and Levi Kerby were members of the winning athletic group for the week. Members attending were (standing, left to right) Caitlyn Day, historian; Rebeckah Hoffman, sentinel; Nicole Fox, treasurer; Kaitlyn Abshear, vice president; Taylor Masters, reporter; Levi Kerby, committee chairman; Jacquee Cantrell, secretary; Michaela Walters, president. (front row) Ethan Lynch, chaplain; and Ami Powell, committee chairman.

Real Estate

For Sale in Ravenna, Estill County, KY

1740 sq. ft. Brick Ranch with 8 +/- acres w/ city water. One of the prettiest properties in Estill County, surrounded by farms. 3 BR, 1 1/2 Bath, Formal Dining Room, Living Room w/ Fireplace, Country Kitchen, Office, 1/2 Basement w/ Fireplace, and Outside Entrance. Large Carport w/ Storage area and Workshop. 20 min. from Richmond, 45 min. from Berea, 1 hr. from Lexington. Home has Many Updates. Road Frontage on Hwy 52, East.

Contact: 502-366-5206 or 502-552-1907
Email <grandugly@insightbb.com>
or <grandugly@insightbb.com>

Taylor Masters is recognized onstage at the annual State FFA Convention for her service in the FFA Association's Reporter Corps, which served during the 3-day convention.

Daniella Powell receives her 2nd place award in Diversified Horticulture Placement; her Supervised Agriculture Experience Program included working as a student volunteer at the high school greenhouse and facilities as well as placement at Ravenna Florist and Greenhouses. "Dani is special to us!" says Ravenna Florist owner Francie Snowden.