Dorothy Marie Crowe, 83

Dorothy Marie Broaddus Crowe died Monday, December 30, 2013 after a long illness. She was born April 17, 1930 to Tobe Hackett Broaddus and Mayme Powell Broaddus in Irvine, Kentucky.

Besides her parents, she is pre-deceased by one brother, Earl D. Broaddus; two sisters, Mildred Langan Whiddon and Mary Langan Delamater; and two children, Barbara A. Benton and Robert L. "Butch" Benton.

Survivors include her husband of 57 years, James Herbert Crowe, three children, James David Crowe (wife, Lori), Donna McClanahan Crow and Angela K. Crow; six grandchildren, Ralph E. (Mac) McClanahan III, Adam R. Benton, Brett D. Benton (wife, Dana), Cody McClanahan Alvey (husband, Josh), Bradley A. Stepp and Bronwen O. Crowe.

She was once employed at Westinghouse where she met her husband and found her true calling as a loving wife and mother. She was also occasionally employed with the Fuller Brush Company and as an Avon Lady where she was able to spread her love throughout the homes of Estill County.

She had many talents such as crochet and writing poetry and was an award winning baker and cook but her first love was raising children, and she poured most of her creativity into that endeavor.

She was active in her community through her participation in the Estill County Fair, Estill County Homemakers, PTA, volunteering at her children's schools, visiting shut-ins, and being a regular supporter of the American Heart Association going door to door for donations. She was genuinely helpful wherever there was need.

Though she was raised in the Irvine Christian Church, as an adult she became a member of the Richmond Primitive Baptist Church where she served God through service to others.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:00 p.m., Thursday, January 2 at the Warren F. Toler Funeral Home Chapel by Officiant Larry Stone. Burial was at the West Irvine Cemetery. Friends called between 6 and 9 p.m., Wednesday, January 1 at the funeral home.

Pallbearers were Adam Benton, Brett Benton, Brad Stepp, Charles Blevins, Bev Blevins and Bobby Brandenburg.

Honorary pallbearers were Juelpa Blackwell, Joan Hughes, Geraldine Conner, Sallie Lou Moore, and Julia Rae Witt. <tolerfuneralhome.com>
