Kentucky students can win $1,500 toward college, $500 for their school

Kentucky students in grades K-6 have the opportunity to win $1,500 toward college and $500 for their school in the "Dream Out Loud Challenge." Students are invited to submit an original drawing, poem, essay or video answering the question: "How will I change the world after I go to college?"

The annual challenge, sponsored by the Kentucky Education Savings Plan Trust (KESPT), is intended to encourage Kentucky families to start saving and planning for higher education with their children. Six winning entries will be selected by a panel of judges. One winner will be chosen from each of two submission categories — drawing or video and essay or poem — in grades K-2, grades 3-4 and grades 5-6. The winning students will receive a $1,500 KESPT college savings account, and their schools will win $500. The contest runs from Jan. 20 through March 21. Entries must be postmarked by March 21 and received by March 26.

"We are excited to sponsor this annual academic contest- asking Kentucky children how they plan on changing the World after they go to college," said David Lawhorn, KESPT administrator. "The contest encourages children in Kentucky to dream about their future and how education can help them achieve their dreams."

KESPT is Kentucky's official college savings plan and is administered by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority and managed by TIAA-CREF Tuition Financing. The plan helps parents, grandparents and others invest in a child's future college education.

Visit www.kysaves.com/DreamOutLoud to learn more about the challenge, including official rules and a complete description of entry requirements. No purchase necessary. Void where prohibited.

To learn how to plan and prepare for higher education, go to www.gotocollege.ky.gov. For more information about Kentucky scholarships and grants, visit www.kheaa.com; write KHEAA, P.O. Box 798, Frankfort, KY 40602; or call (800) 928-8926, ext. 6-7372.

Kevin Carter and Full Assurance welcomes member

Kevin Carter and The Full Assurance Band are welcoming Jacob Thompson, from Lexington, N.C. as its newest band member.

Jacob comes aboard the Full Assurance team with an abundant amount of vocal and instrumental talents. Being raised in a family with a strong musical background, Jacob began to play and sing at the age of 8 years old, and is blessed to be able to sing multiple vocal parts and play several instruments.

Jacob joins the group after spending several years as a teenager on the road in numerous bluegrass quartets including Set Free. Now at the age of 20 Jacob has a calling on his life to serve God and a desire to spread the good news of Jesus Christ. As a member of The Full Assurance Band, Jacob will assume the role of playing guitar and singing various harmony parts.

Kevin Carter and The Full Assurance band has plans to release their new project in the spring of 2014 on the Kindred Record label (Irvine, KY) which will feature Jacob on several cuts. He currently resides in Lexington, N.C. with his Mother and Sister, where he attends Fundamental Baptist Tabernacle. Jacob is a firefighter by trade and is attending Rowan County College to become an EMT. Also, he is an avid hunter and outdoorsman including farming and ranching. Please join me in welcoming Jacob to The Full Assurance Family.
