Local circuit court judge participates in 2015 Circuit Judges College

Circuit Court Judge Michael Dean, who serves Estill, Lee, and Owsley counties, participated in the 2015 Circuit Judges Winter College that took place Jan. 25-28 in Louisville.

The Administrative Office of the Courts provided the education program for the state's circuit judges.

The judges attended courses on domestic violence, science and the law, computer forensics in court, alternative ways to resolve disputes in cases, personal jurisdiction, judicial writing for trial judges, evolving areas of law and recently published cases, and court technology, including eFiling. With eFiling, attorneys can file cases electronically. The program is now available in 26 Kentucky counties and will be in every county in the state by the end of 2015.

"eFiling is going to cut down on the time and money it takes to get to a courthouse to file case documents and attorneys can log on anytime of the day or night," said Jefferson Family Court Judge Stephen M. George, president of the Kentucky Circuit Judges Association. "With clicks of a mouse, attorneys will be able to more efficiently access justice for the people they represent."

"Also, this college was the first for our new circuit judges who took office Jan. 5, so it was a perfect time to welcome them and for the new judges and more experienced judges to discuss a variety of judicial topics."

In addition to general sessions, the college offered separate courses for circuit judges with general jurisdiction and those who oversee Family Court cases.

Circuit judges with general jurisdiction had the opportunity to attend courses on scientific evidence and expert testimony, juror selection, property boundary cases, probation and pretrial discovery. They attended sessions about the admissibility of electronically information in cases and the rights of defendants who are indigent to get state funds for experts for their defense.

Family Court judges attended a session about Kentucky's new juvenile code under Senate Bill 200, the juvenile justice reform legislation passed by the General Assembly in 2014. Other courses specifically focused on self-represented litigants, child custody cases, and trends in dependency, neglect and abuse cases. The DNA session also covered what judges can do to address child fatalities and near fatalities in Kentucky.

Judicial Branch Education worked with the Education Committees of the Kentucky Circuit Judges Association to provide the college. The college included 20.75 hours of continuing education credit for the circuit judges.

Circuit Court is the court of general jurisdiction that hears civil matters involving more than $5,000, capital offenses and felonies, divorces, adoptions, termination of parental rights, land dispute title cases and contested probate cases.

The AOC is the operations arm for the state court system and supports the activities of 3,300 court system employees and 403 elected justices, judges and circuit court clerks. As the fiscal agent for the state court system, the AOC also executes the Judicial Branch budget.
