Maudie's Naughties

Buckle Up

Bambi is caught for speeding and is told to pull over to the side of the road. Realizing she doesn't have her seat belt on, as soon as she stops, she quickly buckles up before the officer reaches her window. After lecturing her about speeding, the cop says, "I noticed you are wearing your seat belt. Do you believe in wearing it at all times?"

"Most definitely, officer," Bambi replies.

"I see," says the cop, "And do you always wear it looped through the steering wheel?"

Meaning of Dreams

Ma wakes up one morning and tells Pa, "I just dreamt that you gave me a pearl necklace even though it isn't my birthday. What do you think it means?"

"You'll know tonight," says Pa.

That evening, Pa comes home with a small package and gives it to Ma. Excited, she opens it to find a book entitled, "The Meaning of Dreams."

Pastor For Dinner

Pa surprises Ma by inviting the new pastor to their home for Sunday dinner after church. At the table, the preacher turns to Little Wilma and says, "Would you like to say the blessing?"

"I wouldn't know what to say," the young girl replies.

"Just say what you hear Ma say," the pastor answers.

Little Wilma bows her head and says, "Lord . . . why on earth did you invite the preacher to dinner?"

Hunting Trip

Two drunk men are out bird-hunting. Suddenly, one of them says, "Hey! I see two birds!"

"Well, shoot, then," says the other man.

"But which one do I shoot?"

"Hmm . . . take another drink," the other man says, handing him the bottle.

"Hey! Now I see three!" exclaims the man.

"Good. Shoot the one in the middle."

Live To 100

An elderly Needmore man is talking to Bubba and Junior down at the store. The man says that his doctor said it was possible that he might live to be a hundred.

Junior asks the man, "Do you smoke or drink?"

"No," he replies, "I've never done either."

"Do you gamble, drive fast cars, and fool around with women?" asks Bubba.

"No, I've never done any of those things either."

"Well then," said Junior, "Why would you want to live to be a 100?"

Where's Your Homework

Johnny, where's your homework?" Miss Martin says sternly to the little boy while holding out her hand.

"My dog ate it," is his solemn response.

"Johnny, I've been a teacher for eighteen years. Do you really expect me to believe that?"

"It's true, Miss Martin," insists Johnny. "I had to force him, but he ate it!"

New Bracelet

A woman sees a beautiful bracelet in the window of a jewelry shop and decides that she wants it, but she doesn't have enough money to buy it. Then she has an idea. She goes into the shop and asks if they will hold the bracelet for her if she pays a small deposit.

The jeweller says that for a deposit of $50 he will hold the bracelet for her for up to four weeks. Then he asks her, "When will you come to collect and pay for the bracelet?"

The woman replies, "My husband will come in and pay for the bracelet as soon as he does something unforgivable . . . probably this weekend!"

Laziest Man

A car pulls up in front of the general store and the driver tells a group of people hanging around there, "I have a job for the laziest one here. If you think you're the laziest, raise your hand." Every one of the group raises their hand except for Junior; so the man asks, "Why didn't you raise your hand?"

"Seems like a lot of trouble just to get a job!"

The Wedding

"Who will give the bride away?" asks the preacher. "I could," comes a voice from the back of the church, "But I'm keeping my mouth shut."

VOTE

Rhonda Hardy

for School Board District 2

I would like to humbly ask for your vote on November 3rd as we continue to move our school district forward. The students and staff will always be our first priority to allow them to succeed. We will work together to continue to make improvements to our schools and facilities as our community deserves the very best.

We find ourselves in unique times, but the commitment to our children and staff will always be what is most important. Please allow me to continue work to move our district forward to be the best.

I would appreciate your consideration and vote.
