Taste of Fall

On Tuesday, the 22nd of September was the arrival of the first day of fall. With it comes crisp air, football, food and fall flavors. I get excited about fall decorating, and I love baking fall recipes. I enjoy making pumpkin roll, pumpkin bread, and pumpkin pie. There's just something about the smell of sugar and spices wafting from the oven and filling the air with irresistible sweetness.

A modern harbinger of fall is the arrival of the pumpkin spice latte in coffee shops. I believe McDonald's has those every fall.

You can now make your own pumpkin spice mix that can be used to bake everything from Bundt Cakes to biscuits. Pumpkin Spice Biscuits and Pumpkin Spice Butter would be delicious on cool fall mornings.

Homemade Pumpkin Spice

Yield: approximately ¼ cup
3 Tbsp. ground cinnamon
1 Tablespoon ground nutmeg
1 Tablespoon ginger
2 Teaspoons ground allspice

In small bowl, stir together all ingredients until combined. Store in an airtight container up to 1 year.

Pumpkin Spice Butter

Yield: Approximately 2/3 cup
½ cup unsalted butter
1/3 cup confectionary sugar
1 tsp. Homemade Pumpkin Spice
¼ teaspoon kosher salt

In a small bowl stir together until smooth.

Pumpkin Spice Biscuits

2 ½ cups self-rising flour
½ cup sugar
1 Tbsp. Homemade Pumpkin Spice
¾ cup cold unsalted butter, cubed
¾ cup buttermilk, chilled
2 Tbsp. unsalted butter, melted.

Preheat oven to 425 degrees. Line baking sheet with parchment paper. Set aside.

In a large bowl, stir together flour, sugar and, Homemade Spice Mix. Using a fork, cut butter into flour until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add buttermilk stirring until combined.

Turn dough on well-floured surface. Knead several times. Pat into 10x9 inch rectangle. Use a 2 ½ inch round cutter, dipped in flour, cut dough without twisting cutter. Place in rounds prepared pan, spacing two inches apart. Brush tops with melted butter. Chill in refrigerator for approximately 10 minutes. Bake until golden brown approximately 12 minutes. Service with Pumpkin Spice Butter. Enjoy!

Thurs., Fri. & Sat., October 1, 2 & 3 Unstoppable God Youth Revival

Boone's Creek Baptist Association is sponsoring a first-ever youth revival on October 1, 2, and 3rd beginning at 7:00 p.m. each night at the Boone's Creek Baptist Association and camp located at 1306 Trapp-Goff's Corner Road, Winchester, KY. Two worship pastors will be joining for a time of praise and worship. Testimonies will be shared and God's Message of Hope will be delivered by two pastors who have served as camp pastors the past two summers at Boone's Creek Baptist Camp.

The event will take place on the softball field at the camp. If it rains, the event will be moved in the gymnasium. Corinth Baptist Church has graciously offered their parking lot for all who attend, which is located next to the camp. Additional parking will also be available around the camp grounds. There will be parking attendants and volunteers directing traffic to ensure everyone gets in and out at the event safely. All provisions will be made to observe social distancing and Covid-19 precautions.

We know our nation needs revival. We know that God can send a great revival. We ask that you pray and invite others to this event. It is a youth revival. However, everyone is welcome to attend.

In preparation for this event, Salem Baptist Church will be hosting an Associational Prayer Gathering for the Youth Revival on Saturday, September 26th from 10am-noon. It will take place outdoors at Salem's Pavilion located behind the church. Please make plans to attend this prayer gathering as we seek God's sending of revival.
