

KSP arrests 80 year old for trafficking in drugs

Continued from Page 1

Osborne reportedly told Robinson they were his guns.

"I was letting Anthony clean them for me," he allegedly told Robinson.

Brooks, 36, of Old Fox Road, was charged with possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, possession of a controlled substance, first degree and first offense (heroin), and drug paraphernalia - buy/possess.

Sheriff Chris Flynn observed subjects inside a building at the right of Osborne's residence engaged in drug activity. A citation states they were in the process of using a syringe that had suspected drugs inside.

Upon Robinson's arrival in the building, he conducted a pat down of all the subjects for weapons and any illegal items.

Robinson said he asked Brenda Taulbee, 37, of Cressy Road, if she had anything in her bra.

He asked Taulbee to stand up, grab her bra and shake it to make sure there were no illegal items in her bra.

The citation states that as Robinson walked out to assist Deputy Smith at the other building, Sheriff Flynn saw Taulbee throw two items on the ground beside the chair where she was sitting.

Robinson said he asked her where those items came from, and she replied, "my bra."

He added that on the table in front of her were multiple syringes and a digital scale. One baggie contained suspected methamphetamine and the other contained suspected heroin.

Taulbee was charged with two counts of possession of a controlled substance, first degree and first offense (heroin and methamphetamine), tampering with physical evidence, and drug paraphernalia - buy/possess.

Acquaintances say that Taulbee is Osborne's daughter. She gave the same address as he did.

Heather L. Jones, 33, of New Fox Road, Irvine was charged with possession of a controlled substance, first degree (methamphetamine) by Deputy Brad Smith.

Her citation states that a search of her pockets revealed a small bag of methamphetamine.

Jonathan Banks, 38, of Winchester was charged by Trooper Robinson with a parole violation, a felony offense.

While the scene was secured by the other officers, Sheriff Flynn obtained a search warrant for Osborne's property.

During the execution of the search warrant of the residence, officers say they located approximately 71 grams of suspected heroin, approximately 50 grams of suspected methamphetamine, approximately $8,921 in US dollars, six digital scales, and large amounts of spoons/syringes.

The 80 year old Osborne was charged with two counts of trafficking in a controlled substance, first degree and first offense (greater than two grams of heroin and methamphetamine), and drug paraphernalia - buy/possess.

Covid-19 Numbers Updated

As of Monday, Aug. 31

Total # Tested - 1775

Negative - 1690

Pending Results - 3

Active Positive - 39

Total Ever Positive - 82

Recovered Positive - 43

New Positive Cases - 35
(Since Last Week)

IPD executes search; arrests two for drugs

The Irvine Police Department arrested two men after executing a search warrant at 120 Lincoln Avenue early Sunday morning.

The citation by officer James Marshall says that IPD located suspected small amounts of heroin and methamphetamine. He adds that IPD confiscated hundreds of baggies, scales, calibration weights, syringes, meth pipes, and a large amount of cash.

Officer Marshall said the two men do not work.

Isaac E. Miller, 32, was charged with two counts of trafficking in a controlled substance, first degree and first offense (heroin and methamphetamine).

Joshua William Klema, 30, was charged with the same trafficking offenses. The citation states the scales, baggies, and a large sum of money were found in Klema's bedroom.

Police also located a stolen Rock Island 42 caliber pistol in Kelma's room. It was loaded with 18 rounds.

Klema was also charged with receiving stolen property (firearm) and possession of a handgun by a convicted felon.

According to the citation, Klema had pled guilty in August of 2019 to felony charges from 2018 and 2019 in Madison Circuit Court.

Isaac Miller
Photo/3 Forks Jail

Joshua Klema
Photo/3 Forks Jail

New Drivers

Monday, August 31 Intermediate licenses
Abby Freeman, Emily Hall, and Shannon Jenkins.

Operator license
Ashley Collins

Operator Permits
Bailey Lawson, Lori Adkins, and MaKayla Trimble.

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

The works of the Lord are great, studied by all who have pleasure in them. His work is honorable and glorious, and His righteousness endures forever.
PSALM III: 2,3

Detail of Tree of Life by Gustav Klimt, 1909

© 2013 by King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.

Irvine Police arrest nude man

Irvine Police Officer James Marshall arrested a "nude" man on Saturday morning.

He received a complaint the man was walking around nude wearing only shoes on North Plum Street.

The officer said the man had entered a residence uninvited. The home owner gave Chief John Sturniolo and Officer Marshall permission to remove the man.

The citation states that he was manifestly under the influence of narcotics. He was wearing gym shorts when arrested.

The homeowner told police that she was afraid of the man.

The arrested man was identified as Jacob T. Harrison, 28, of N. Madison Ave., Irvine. Harrison was charged with public intoxication of a controlled substance (excludes alcohol) and first degree criminal trespass.

Deputies Josh King and Chris Coffey, and Trooper J. Hacker arrested Harrison the next day on charges of resisting arrest and menacing at North Madison Avenue.

The citation states the officers spoke to Harrison through a closed door which he refused to open.

Officers made entry into the residence and found Harrison in a back room of the residence. They said he refused to show his hands, and kept making verbal threats and swore at the officers.

He reportedly tried to turn and pull away from Deputy King while he was putting him in a patrol unit.

Deputy Coffey served an arrest warrant on Harrison which had been obtained by Sheriff Chris Flynn over the incident following Harrison's arrest the day before by the Irvine Police Department.

ment.

The sheriff said that while Harrison was being transferred from one Estill County vehicle to another, he jumped out of the vehicle, pushed and struck an Estill County jailer in the head. This also caused a minor injury to the jailer's chin and hand.

The warrant says Harrison then attempted to strike the Estill County jailer. An ensuing struggle caused injury to the jailer.

The warrant charges Harrison with third degree assault of (officer transporting inmates).

Man charged with dealing in "blue heroin" and meth

Continued from Page 1

McIntosh was charged with aggravated trafficking in a controlled substance (greater than or equal to 100 grams of heroin) and drug paraphernalia - buy/possess.

McIntosh was arraigned August 26 in Estill District Court where he pled not-guilty to both charges. He is scheduled to return to court on September 4 for a preliminary hearing.

Sunday, September 13

American Legion meetings

All meetings at the American Legion will be held on Sunday, Sept. 13 at the time your meeting is to be held. The meetings are postponed one week because of Labor Day weekend.

Correction from Last Week

The time frame in last week's article about the needle exchange was incorrect.

The 8,000 needles were distributed in one year, and not one month.

Police activity report

Three persons were arrested Thursday morning at 170 Lee Acres Road by the Irvine Police Department.

The officers responded to a call of domestic violence at the residence around 2:33 a.m.

Anthony Coffey, 52, told the officers that his wife had busted his windshield and flattened all four tires.

A citation written by Officer James Marshall states that Coffey admitted that he had hit his wife in the head with a long piece of finishing wood and busted out the back glass of her car.

Coffey was arrested for fourth degree assault (minor injury).

His wife, Jacqueline Coffey, 52, was arrested by Officer Jason Conrad on a bench warrant from Estill District Court.

Two warrants were served by Officer Conrad on a third person at the residence, 28 year old Rachel C. Crouch, of 1182 Pea Ridge Road, Irvine. The warrants were from Estill District and Bath District courts.

Irvine Detective Sam Hensley assisted at the scene.

Jacob Lewis, 24, of Clearview Drive, Irvine was arrested Thursday by Officer Marshall for fourth degree assault (minor injury).

The citation states that he hit his 72 year old grandmother with his fist causing a large hematoma above her right eye.

Police Chief John Sturniolo and Officer Jason Conrad also responded to the scene.

A bench warrant was served Thursday by Officer Marshall on Billy D. Blevins, 66, of Winchester Road, Irvine for failure to appear in Estill District Court.

Officer Conrad served an Estill District Court bench warrant on Stephanie Dunn, 29, homeless of Irvine on Saturday.

Timothy Paul Shelby, 36, of McKee Road, Irvine was arrested Sunday by KSP Trooper J. Hacker. Shelby was charged with possession of a controlled substance, first degree and first offense (methamphetamine) and drug paraphernalia - buy/possess.

The citation states that Trooper Hacker was assisting the Estill County Sheriff's Office with a domestic disturbance. Three intoxicated males were allegedly causing a disturbance in a driveway on Substation Road.

When Hacker arrived, he said the males were standing in the driveway around a white four-door sedan.

Shelby told the trooper that he had just arrived and was not sure of what was going on.

He confirmed it was his vehicle and gave permission to search it.

The citation states that Hacker located a clear plastic baggy containing a white substance suspected to be methamphetamine and an empty capped syringe in the glove compartment. The trooper also said he located a multi-colored skull pipe containing a green leafy residue in the bowl area of the pipe.

John Tipton, 41, of Tuggle Branch, Ravenna was charged Friday with theft by unlawful taking or disposition all others under $500 by Sgt. Josh Rison.

The deputy was dispatched to the bottom of Cobb Hill Road to investigate a vehicle sitting in the middle of the road.

Rison said Tipton's vehicle was stopped in the roadway beside some construction equipment including a Ford tractor. He said Tipton's hands were covered with grease, and he reportedly told Rison he was looking at the tractor.

The sergeant said upon further investigation, Tipton had taken the battery off the tractor and had it in the back of his truck.

Alex Gilbert, 59, of Mockingbird Lane, Irvine, was charged August 24 by Deputy Josh King with fourth degree assault (domestic violence) minor injury.

King said he received a call that a female had been assaulted on Mockingbird Lane. He found her on the porch still crying and stating that Gilbert had tried to smother her by pressing his hand over her mouth.

EMS arrived and checked the female out. The deputy said there were red marks around her neck and blood on her lip.

William Bray, 41, of Richmond Road, Irvine was arrested Saturday by Deputy Chris Coffey for alcohol intoxication on Richmond Road.

Donna Cockrell, 52, of Little Rock Road, Irvine was arrested Saturday by Deputy Chris Coffey. He charged her with theft by unlawful taking /shoplifting under $500 at Dollar General.

The citation states the manager pointed Cockrell out to the deputy. When she came out of the business, Coffey confronted her.

He said she admitted to taking two items, but upon further investigation she had $75.10 worth in her bag that was not paid for.