

Estill County's Historic Flooding of March, 2021

ABOVE: Flooding along the Kentucky River in the Barnes Mountain, Doe Creek and Buck Creek areas of Estill County

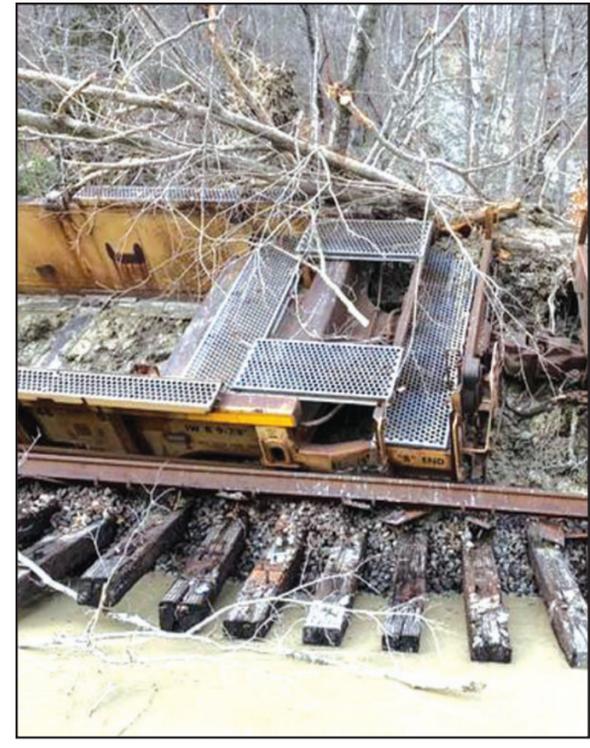

The exhibit hall at the Estill County Fairgrounds and the shelter used for the farmers market were flooded.

Houses were surrounded by water at the intersection of Poplar and Third Streets in Ravenna. The water was still rising.

Overturned rail cars caused by a mudslide above the tracks at Millers Creek

Damaged railroad tracks at Millers Creek

The intersection of Wisemantown and Richmond Roads was covered with water.

Vehicles were parked at the Ravenna Church of God on Monday as their owners watched to see if they needed to be moved to higher ground. (Thanks to various photographers for these pictures)