In Memory of Bass Lee Richardson

Born April 20, 1923
Died September 26, 2013

Bass Lee Richardson

He was the son of the late Levi and Mollie Botner Richardson. Bass Lee's wife was Ruby Benton Howell. They had ten children; five boys and five girls: Shirley Collett, Rita Collett, Bass Lee Richardson Jr., Frieda Holliman, Judy Ann Richardson, Wayne Richardson, Ricky Richardson, Jerry Richardson, Rhonda Devary and Larry Richardson. Judy and Larry went on to be with the Lord.

We want to wish Daddy a Happy Heavenly Birthday. We loved him so dearly. Gone but no forgotten. Daddy had three sisters, Irene Goodlander, Pauline Grigsby, and Zella McKinney. There were three brothers also, Ralph Richardson, Burgoyne Richardson, and Hume Richardson. At Daddy's death, he had 26 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

Green Mountains Run Wild

I know you're resting beneath, where green mountains run wild. And you'll find me where brooks flow swiftly by and crystal waters never run dry. I believe you'll find me resting beside the still magnolia vines. And where the sun kisses the morning dew, I know that wild fern grows for you.

I can feel cold wind blowing by: Do you feel the chill of these tired, old eyes? In the silence of the day, you'll find me praying there, and these old tears I cry for you. I know your resting beside the banks of the Jordon now. If you listen closely, you'll hear the Rock of Ages sung there.

Someday, I will follow you where the songbirds sing forever; and you'll find me in Paradise. When it's time to say my final good-byes, don't shed sad, old tears for me now and cry. This is the place I'm finally resting, a place of peace and joy; no death will ever knock at our door any more.

As I look out over yonder where crystal waters never run dry; this old vessel I once used, I have no use for now. I'm home now, where green mountains fun wild. I'll never feel any more pain, only joy and peace you'll find there.

This is my final resting place, where crystal waters flow swiftly by. In the green mountains I lay still now. I know you're resting where green mountains run wild; that's where you'll find me now.

Our Beloved, Precious Daddy, we miss you and loved you so much. Happy Heavenly Birthday!

Love, your daughter and author of Green Mountains Run Wild, Frieda Richardson Holliman
