Maudie's Naughties

IRS Audits Ma & Pa

Ma and Pa are unhappily conversing with the IRS auditor who has come to review their records. At one point the auditor says, "We feel it is a great privilege to be allowed to live and work in the USA. As a citizen you have an obligation to pay taxes, and we expect you to eagerly pay them with a smile."

"That's sounds great," says Pa, "I thought you were going to want cash!"

Lunchtime Conversation

Mitsi and Trixie are having a conversation during there lunch break. Mitsi asks, "Say, Trixie, how's your sex life these days?" Trixie replies, "Oh, you know. It's the usual, Social Security kind." "Social Security?" Mitsi asks quizzically. Trixie replies, "Yeah, you get a little each month, but it's not enough to live on."

Major Operation

A patient awakens after a serious operation only to find herself in a room with all the blinds drawn. Why are all the blinds closed?" she asks her doctor. Well, the surgeon responded, "They're fighting a huge fire across the street, and we didn't want you to wake up and think the operation had failed."

Bad Day in Vegas

Bambi and Trixie are having a bad day at the tables in Vegas. Down to their last $100, completely exasperated, Bambi cries, "What rotten luck! What in the world should we do now?"

A man standing nearby, trying to calm them down a bit, calmly suggests, "I don't know . . . Why don't you play your age?"

He walks away, but a few minutes later, a commotion alerts him to their table where he is stunned to see Bambi lying limp on the floor, with Trixie and the table operator kneeling over her.

He asks, "What happened? Is she all right?" Trixie replies, "I don't know, buddy . . . She put all her money on 29. When 36 came up, she fainted!"

Geography Lesson

Little Wilma is doing her Geography homework over at Ma and Pa's. She turns to Junior and says, "Junior, where would I find the Andes?"

"Don't ask me," says Junior. "Ask Ma. She puts away everything that comes into this house."

Good News, Bad News

Lawyer: I have some good news and some bad news. Client: Well, give me the bad news first. Lawyer: The bad news is that the DNA tests showed that it was your blood they found all over the crime scene. Client: Oh no! I'm ruined! What's the good news? Lawyer: Your cholesterol is down to 130!

Mathematics Lesson

Ma, Pa and Junior are sitting at the table eating. At the other end of the table sits a pan with two pieces of pie in it. After watching the plate a while, Junior says, "Pa, I can prove that there are three pieces of pie in that pan."

"Go ahead," says Pa, and continues eating. "Well," says Junior, pointing, "This is one, and this is two. One and two make three!"

"You're a genius," says Pa. "Now let Ma have the first piece, and I'll take the second. Then you can have the one that is left."

Economics Lesson

After being away on business, Tim thought it would be nice to bring his wife a little gift. "How about some perfume?" he asks the cosmetics clerk. She shows him a bottle costing $50.00.

"That's a bit much," says Tim, so she returns with a smaller bottle for $30.00.

"That's still quite a bit," Tim complains. Growing annoyed, the clerk brings out a tiny $15.00 bottle. "What I mean," says Tim, "is I'd like to see something really cheap."

The clerk hands him a mirror.
