Ivory Hill Honors Mothers

Ivory Hill Baptist Church presented flowers to all mothers present on Mothers' Day, Sunday, May 9, 2021. Patty Stone, the mother of the day's speaker, Bro. Randy Stone, was our oldest mother at 79 years; Larissa Muncy was the youngest; and Patty Ormes had the most children present. So blessed for all the women in our lives who pray and encourage everyone daily.

Delilah Rogers of Irvine sent us a picture of her crocheted bedspread she has made. It is called "My Wild Rose." She writes, "I thought you might like to see how I spent my winter. I started this hand crocheted bedspread the first week of January and finished it April 15th. I named it, "My Wild Rose." I became 90 years old, April 18, so you see how an old woman, tired and worn out, can still make something pretty. It is 75"x96". Have a nice Spring!" Great job, Delilah!
