Maudie's Naughties

Mississippi Grandma

In a trial, a Southern small-town prosecuting attorney calls his first witness, a grandmotherly, elderly woman to the stand. He approaches her and asks, 'Mrs. Jones, do you know me?' She responds, 'Why, yes, I do know you, Mr. Williams. I've known you since you were a boy, and frankly, you've been a big disappointment to me. You lie, you cheat on your wife, and you manipulate people and talk about them behind their backs. You think you're a big shot when you haven't the brains to realize you'll never amount to anything more than a two-bit paper pusher. Yes, I know you.'

The lawyer is stunned. Not knowing what else to do, he points across the room and asks, 'Mrs. Jones, do you know the defense attorney?' She again replies, 'Why yes, I do. I've known Mr. Bradley since he was a youngster, too. He's lazy, bigoted, and he has a drinking problem. He can't build a normal relationship with anyone, and his law practice is one of the worst in the entire state. Not to mention he cheated on his wife with three different women. One of them was your wife. Yes, I know him.'

The defense attorney nearly dies.

The judge asks both counselors to approach the bench and, in a very quiet voice, said, 'If either of you idiots asks her if she knows me, I'll send you both to the electric chair.'

Stayin' Alive

A cowboy tells his grandson the secret to a long life. He says, "You gotta sprinkle a little gunpowder on your oatmeal, see. If you do, you'll live to a nice ripe old age."

So the cowboy does this religiously every day, and sure enough, lives to the nice ripe old age of 96. When he dies he leaves behind four children, eight grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren... and a 16-foot hole in the wall of the crematorium.

Paying Respects

A golfer and his buddies are playing a big round of golf for $200. At the eighteenth green, the golfer has a ten-foot putt to win the round and the $200. As he is lining up his putt, a funeral procession starts to pass by. The golfer sets down his putter, takes off his hat, places it over his chests and begins to wait for the funeral procession to pass. Afterwards, he returns and sinks the winning putt.

"That was one of the most touching things I have ever seen," says one of his buddies. "Stopping play, possibly losing your concentration, to pay your respects." "Well," the golfer says. "We were married for 25 years."

Special Pig

Farmer Jones got out of his car and while heading for his friend's door, notices a pig with a wooden leg. His curiosity roused, he asks, "Fred, how'd that pig get him a wooden leg?"

"Well, that's a mighty special pig! A while back we had a fire one night. That pig pushes open the door and wakes us up. We all got out okay and were able to save the house, too."

"And the pig got his leg burned off in the fire?"

"No," says Farmer Fred. "He got out okay, too!"

"Well, how did he get the wooden leg?"

"That's a special pig," says Farmer Fred. "When you have a special pig like that, you don't want to eat him all at once!"

Free Sex With Fill Up

Bubba and Junior are driving down the road when they need some gas. After a while, they see a sign that reads "Free Sex with Fill-up." They decide to pull in and ask the attendant for a full tank. After he is done, they pay, and the attendant starts to walk away. "Wait," Bubba yells, "What about my free sex?"

The attendant rolls his eyes and comes back to the car. "Okay, but you will have to guess a number between 1 and 10."

"6." "No, the answer is 3. Sorry."

As the attendant starts to walk off, Junior asks to guess. The attendant agrees.

"7." "No, I told you the answer was 3." Bubba then speeds off.

"I think that game was rigged," says Junior. "There is no way to win."

"Uh-uh," says Bubba. "My wife won three times last week."

Severe storms, flooding, landslides, mudslides

SBA Offers Disaster Assistance to Businesses and Residents of Kentucky

Low-interest disaster loans from the U.S. Small Business Administration are available to businesses and residents in Kentucky following the announcement of a Presidential disaster declaration due to severe storms, flooding, landslides and mudslides from Feb. 27 through March 14.

"The SBA is strongly committed to providing Kentucky residents with the most effective response possible to assist businesses, homeowners and renters with federal disaster loans. Getting businesses and communities up and running after a disaster is our highest priority," said SBA Administrator Isabella Casillas Guzman.

Businesses and residents in the declared area can now apply for low-interest disaster loans from the SBA. The disaster declaration covers Breathitt, Clay, Estill, Floyd, Johnson, Lee, Magoffin, Martin and Powell counties in Kentucky, which are eligible for both Physical and Economic Injury Disaster Loans from the SBA. Small businesses and most private nonprofit organizations in the following adjacent counties are eligible to apply only for SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loans: Bell, Clark, Jackson, Knott, Knox, Laurel, Lawrence, Leslie, Madison, Menifee, Montgomery, Morgan, Owsley, Perry, Pike and Wolfe in Kentucky; and Mingo and Wayne in West Virginia.

In accordance with health precautions for COVID-19, the SBA will not establish a field presence to assist survivors. However, the SBA will continue to provide customer service and conduct outreach virtually with webinars, phone assistance and step-by-step application assistance. The SBA has opened a Virtual Disaster Loan Outreach Center/Business Recovery Center (VDLOC/VBRC) to help survivors apply online using the Electronic Loan Application (ELA) via the SBA's secure website at DisasterLoan.sba.gov. Virtual customer support representatives are available to help applicants complete the online application during these hours:

Virtual Disaster Loan Outreach Center/ Business Recovery Center (VDLOC/VBRC)

Open: Monday - Sunday (7 days/week)

Hours: 8 a.m. - 8 p.m. (Eastern Time)

Email: FOCE-Help@sba.gov

Phone: (800) 659-2955

Survivors should contact the SBA's Disaster Customer Service Center at (800) 659-2955 for assistance in completing their loan applications. Requests for SBA disaster loan program information may be obtained by emailing FOCE-Help@sba.gov. The SBA will conduct extensive outreach to ensure that those affected by the disaster have an opportunity to apply for assistance.

Businesses and private nonprofit organizations of any size may borrow up to $2 million to repair or replace disaster-damaged or destroyed real estate, machinery and equipment, inventory, and other business assets. Applicants may be eligible for a loan amount increase up to 20 percent of their physical damages, as verified by the SBA, for mitigation purposes. Eligible mitigation improvements may include a sump pump, elevation, French drain or retaining wall to help protect property and occupants from future damage caused by a similar disaster.

For small businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, small businesses engaged in aquaculture and most private nonprofit organizations, the SBA offers Economic Injury Disaster Loans to help meet working capital needs caused by the disaster. Economic Injury Disaster Loan assistance is available regardless of whether the business suffered any physical property damage.

Disaster loans up to $200,000 are available to homeowners to repair or replace disaster damaged or destroyed real estate. Homeowners and renters are eligible for up to $40,000 to repair or replace disaster-damaged or destroyed personal property.

Interest rates are as low as 3 percent for businesses, 2 percent for nonprofit organizations and 1.25 percent for homeowners and renters, with terms up to 30 years. Loan amounts and terms are set by the SBA and are based on each applicant's financial condition.

Applicants may apply online using the Electronic Loan Application (ELA) via the SBA's secure website at DisasterLoan.sba.gov.

To be considered for all forms of disaster assistance, applicants should register online at DisasterAssistance.gov or download the FEMA mobile app. If online or mobile access is unavailable, applicants should call the FEMA toll-free helpline at 800-621-3362. Those who use 711-Relay or Video Relay Services should call 800-621-3362.

Businesses and individuals may also obtain information and loan applications by calling the SBA's Customer Service Center at 1-800-659-2955 (1-800-877-8339 for the deaf and hard-of-hearing), or by emailing DisasterCustomerService@sba.gov. Loan applications can also be downloaded at sba.gov/disaster. Completed applications should be mailed to: U.S. Small Business Administration, Processing and Disbursement Center, 14925 Kingsport Road, Fort Worth, TX 76155.

The filing deadline to return applications for physical property damage is June 22, 2021. The deadline to return economic injury applications is Jan. 24, 2022.
