Owen Franklin Yeager, 75

VETERAN

Owen Franklin "Frank" Yeager, 75, died on Monday, July 26, 2021 at his home in Burgin, Kentucky.

Frank was born on May 31, 1946 in Richmond, Kentucky. The son of the late Joseph B. Yeager and Virginia P. Yeager, he grew up in Irvine where he attended Irvine High School. After a brief service in the United States Army, Frank enjoyed surveying land for several years, a period of time he enjoyed reflecting on, before starting work at Rockwell in Winchester in 1968. He lived in Winchester from 1978 to 1992 before transferring to Meritor (Rockwell) in Oshkosh, Wisconsin where he lived and worked until retiring in 1998. He enjoyed boating on the waters of Lake Winnebago during his years in Oshkosh.

Upon retirement he returned to Winchester for more than a decade where his sons enjoyed visiting him in the town where they grew up with him. In 2013 he moved to his final residence in Burgin where he enjoyed a breathtaking view overlooking Herrington Lake and the beautiful farmland surrounding it. He spent many hours in his last years enjoying the natural wonders of this scene and observing the joy of the recreational boaters and fishermen with his beloved dog, Sissy, and cat, Fatty Kat. He was a lifelong golf enthusiast and fan of the Cincinnati Reds and Green Bay Packers, and one of the world's most devoted TV watchers and coffee drinkers.

"Dad" "Grandpa" had a deep bond with his animals. It is comforting to know he is once again with his beloved dogs Sissy and Bullet. Pursuant to his wishes, his ashes will be combined with those of Sissy (pictured with him) and scattered overlooking the scene they enjoyed during so much time together. There will be no public services.

Frank was preceded in death by his loving parents and his brothers, Joseph Patrick Yeager and Thomas Bennett Yeager.

He is survived by his sons, Frankie Lee Yeager (Rhonda) of Georgetown, Joseph Patrick Yeager (Sherry) of Irvine, and Lance Owen Yeager (Kathleen) of Louisville; his grandchildren, Stephanie Reynolds (Charlie), Alicia Danielle Blanton (Adam), Crystal Yeager LeMaster, Ivy Lee Yeager, Lance Owen Yeager, Layne Frances Yeager, and Elliott Aloysius Yeager; and five great-grandchildren.

Frank is also survived by his sister, Mary Anne Schmitz of Loveland, Ohio, whom he loved so much; and a person who was very special in his life, Sue Taulbee of Winchester.

He loved his family and friends. His passing leaves a hole we cannot fill, but his love and thoughtful ways will always be carried in our hearts. He lived life on his own terms and always wanted the best for everyone. "Dad, we loved you beyond words. We'll see you again."

A later private memorial for family will be announced.

Reppert Funeral Home and Cremation Service of Berea was entrusted with arrangements.

L&N Day Welcomes Train Enthusiasts

Calling all history buffs and train enthusiasts: L&N Day returns on Saturday, August 7, 2021 in Berea, Kentucky. Join current and retired railroad employees, train buffs, and "kids" of all ages in celebrating the last brick L&N Railroad Depot still standing between Cincinnati and Knoxville.

There will be memorabilia for show and sale, exhibitors from three states, working model trains, games and activities for children, family photo opportunities, and much, much more! Visitors can collect a commemorative ticket and watch freight trains cruise by just a few feet from the platform.

New this year: a special HO layout by Lawrence Godridge Design showcasing France in Mid-August 1944. The diorama depicts General George Patton's Third Army racing across the French countryside at a rare moment when supplies caught up with the American forces at a small railhead. This traveling display is dedicated to veterans.

The historic L&N Depot, home to Berea Welcome Center since 1987, saw its last passenger train in 1968 and last freight train in 1971. The depot was originally part of the Kentucky Central Railroad and was purchased by Louisville & Nashville (L&N) in 1891, one year after Berea became a city. The property was placed on the National Registry of Historical Places in 1975. The railroad is now operated by CSX.

Located in the heart of the Old Town Artisan Village, 3 Artist Circle, Berea, KY. The 21st Annual L&N Day is FREE and open to the public from 9am - 5pm.

For more information call 1-800-598-5263 or visit the web at www.visitberea.com.
