Maudie's Naughties

The Love Dress

A young girl gets married and a few days later her mother goes to visit. When she knocks on the door, she is shocked to see her daughter open it naked.

"What are you doing?" she asks.
"Mom, it's my LOVE dress!! Don't you like it?"
"I'll come back in a few weeks when the honeymoon is over" replies the mom.

When she goes back, she is shocked when once again her daughter is naked. "Now what are you doing?"

"Mom, it's my LOVE dress. It keeps the marriage spicy!"

Later that night the mom decides to try it for herself. When her husband comes home, he gives the same reaction: "Honey, what are you doing?"

She give him the same answer her daughter gave her, "It's my LOVE dress! What do you think of it?"

Her husband thinks long and hard and says, "I think you should have ironed it!"

Exam Room

A new patient is quite upset when the doctor's nurse leads him to a small, curtained cubicle and tells him to undress. "But I only want the doctor to look at an ingrown toenail!" he protests.

"Our rule is that everyone must undress," replies the nurse as she hands him a very skimpy johnny.

"That's a stupid rule," grumbles the patient, "Making me undress just to look at my toe."

"That's nothing," growls a voice from the next cubicle. "I just came to fix the phones!"

Wrong Tee

It is a sunny Saturday morning, and Pete is beginning his pre-shot routine. As he is visualizing his upcoming shot, a voice comes over the loudspeaker, "Would the gentleman on the ladies tee please back up to the men's tee, please!"

Pete is still deep in his routine, seemingly impervious to the interruption. Again the announcement, "Would the man on the women's tee kindly back up to the men's tee!"

Pete has had enough. He yells, "Will the announcer in the clubhouse kindly shut up and let me play my second shot!"

Hack Golfer

A hack golfer spends a day at the plush country club . . . knocking balls around the course and enjoying the luxury of a complimentary caddy.

Being a hack golfer, he plays poorly all day. About the 18th hole, he spots a lake left of the fairway.

He looks at the caddy and says, "I've played so poorly all day; I think I'm going to go drown myself in that lake."

The caddy looks back at him and says, "I don't think you could keep your head down that long."

Money Problems

A young man is having some money problems . . . and needs $200 to get his car fixed and road-worthy again. But, he has run out of friends to borrow from.

So, he calls his dad who is playing golf at the club with a friend, and says, "I need to borrow two hundred dollars."

At the other end, his father says, "Sorry, I can't hear you well, son. I think I'm out of tower range."

The boy shouts, "Two hundred. Ineedtwohundreddollars!"

"Sorry, I still can't hear you clearly," says his father. The friend butts in and says, "There's nothing wrong with that phone. I can hear him perfectly."

"Oh, good!" says the father. "Then, YOU send him the money!"

Pulling A Tooth

The patient enquires of the dentist, "How much do you charge for pulling out a tooth?"

"Three hundred dollars is the usual fee," the dentist says.

"Three hundred dollars for such a quick operation?" complains the patient.

"Well," counsels the helpful dentist. "I'll can do it very slowly for you so you get your money's worth,"

Couples Golf

A husband and wife play golf together every day. She always wins. Tired of humiliation, he decides to break her concentration. As she readies to tee off he goes up to her and whispers into her ear. "I've had a mistress for the whole 15 years we've been married."

Needless to say, the wife loses the round.

Next day, the wife decides it's time to punish her husband. As he readies to tee off she says, "Before we met I was a man." He loses the round.

At work the next day he just can't get over what his wife has told him. A colleague notices his distress, and the husband blurts out the whole story.

"Why worry?" says the colleague.

"You love your wife and have been happy for 15 years. Just forget the whole thing."

"That's not the point," says the husband.

"She's been teeing off the women's tee for all that time!"

Letters to the Editor

Response to Jay Bicknell's Column

The things you said are true. Things are going on today that we would not have thought possible years ago. We thought that America would not have put up with those who tear down all that is good and decent in our country. Now another ungodly man has been elected as president, not once but twice, and he is against America and Christians. He has done more to hurt America than any other president.

Persecution of Christians has been going on in other parts of the world since Jesus walked the earth. Now we are starting to see it here in America. We are told to not mention Jesus because it offends many people, yet we are told to accept the lifestyles of the wicked. People from other countries sneak into America and have more rights than we do. Why should they get tax breaks, draw Social Security, and get to vote when they are Criminals?

People who have worked, paid taxes, and served our country don't get the help that the freeloaders do. I asked about the free phone that the government is giving out and was told that because I didn't draw public assistance I didn't qualify. Plenty of votes were purchased with those phones. So many people in America are taken in by those who promise them money and everything that you and I have had to work for. Remember the American Indian? He was promised that the government would take care of him and provide everything for him. Looks like we are in for the same treatment.

It is a shame that so many will continue to vote for these ungodly leaders because they are of their party. I wonder if there are any decent people running for office anymore in national elections. On those rare occasions when such a person is elected he is mocked as being old fashioned, or ignorant.

Like you said the days that we live in are starting to look like the days that Jesus talked about in Matthew 24. The bible also said that there would be a great falling away and it is here. 2 Thessalonians 2:3. The falling away is not only in numbers, but in doctrines of the Lord. Some churches allow things to go on now that they would never have done in the past. They change to please the modern crowd and forget that God doesn't change. There are those churches and preachers who don't mention hell because many people don't want to hear about it. I guess that they will learn about it first hand.

No, God doesn't change, but America and the sinner had better change. No nation is to big for God to punish. He punished Israel and America is no better. Luke 21: 28. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

Many will hate us for speaking against these sinful things and the people that do them. That's to be expected because those who hate Jesus will hate his people. John 15: 18. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. Speak up Christian - we've been silent too long.

Support For Alternative Solutions

Dear Friends and Neighbors:

Sunday, October 4th at 1:00 p.m. will provide a chance for you to do something very special. If you are against abortion and would like to show support for alternative solutions to an unwanted pregnancy, then the silent rally in Richmond, is for you.

LifeChain of America is conducting rallies all across America to promote this cause on the first Sunday in October, and they would like a large crowd to be available to hold preprinted placards stating this information.

Sign-up tables will be between Baptist Hospital and Madison County EMS. No preregistration is required.

The rally will end at 2:30 p.m., so bring a lawn chair if you would like.

For more info please call Bill Wasson at 859-248-6654 or go directly to <LifeChain.net> for all info needed.

God Bless.

Sincerely,

Valerie Flinchum

Ravenna Shines Again

On September 19, 2015, Ravenna shined again by having another successful Railroad Festival. The festival was held in the beautiful Veteran's Memorial Park, where many men and women admired its beauty and relived memories of their service time. Even though we are a small quaint city, we want the world to know that we exist. We want our citizens to be proud to live here. We are a railroad town that will not give up and die. There are now only a few trains that run through our town, but even so, we will not be defeated. We have the will to survive and thrive against all odds. Almost all of our stores are open and doing business every day. We are by no means a metropolis, but by the same token we are not dying.

There were over twenty booths this year and all of them did very well. We had tasty baked goods, mouth watering candy and gorgeous hand made gifts and crafts. The Ravenna booth was well manned by Sandy Savage, Eva Lou McIntosh, Rebecca Jane Wolfenbarger and Margaret Arvin. Donald "Dog Tick" McIntosh and Eva Lou McIntosh contacted many former railroaders to make sure that they knew about the festival and encouraged them to attend. We are so grateful that they attended, and hopefully they enjoyed the day as our guests.

WSKV, a local Stanton radio station headed by Ethan Moore, took care of all the announcements of prize awards, weather statements, introduced local talent and recognized sponsors, which entertained the festival goers for the entire day.

It was so heart warming to hear the excited squeals of the children as they enjoyed the Little Lamb Playhouse Bounce House. The Thompson Catering train ride and hay ride, that was hosted by Shelton Powell and his daughter, Danielle, were free entertainment thanks to the generosity of our wonderful sponsors. The Ravenna Greenhouse hosted the scarecrow contest and the pumpkin decorating contest. Later in the evening all of the crowd turned to Main Street to enjoy the forty car antique show, sponsored by the "Twin City Krutzerz". Sharon's sponsored the "dash plaques" and Barger's Towing of Richmond, KY sponsored the five awards. Many of the festival goers visited local stores and ate at Michael's, Wigwam, and Old Timer's Market.

I want to take this opportunity to give a special thanks to our wonderful sponsors: Bunt Gross Auto and Truck Sales Co., Irvine and Ravenna Kiwanis Club, Estill County Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 8019, Louisville and Nashville Historical Society, Citizens Guaranty Bank, Marcum and Wallace Memorial Hospital, Kentucky Utilities, Carhart Inc., Michael O'Hair, Estill County Tribune, Michael's, Ravenna Florist and Greenhouse, Marilyn Raider, Children's Clinic and The Mike's Travel. I want to give a very special thanks to Ricky Williams, Jeremiah Williams, Carolyn Williams and as always my good friend, Ben Lay. They not only took care of the booth set-ups but also managed the arduous task of clean-up after the festival was over. They are all my good friends, and I could not have had this successful festival without them.

Sincerely,

Mayor Estine C. Tipton
