

Marcum & Wallace Re-verified as Level IV Trauma Center

Marcum & Wallace Hospital (MWMH) was Kentucky's first Level IV Trauma Center and will remain a part of the Kentucky Trauma Care System after passing re-verification recently. The facility was re-verified with no discrepancies and was cited as a "prototype" organization for trauma.

In 2012, MWMH was a part of the inaugural group of hospitals designated into Kentucky's Trauma Care System. The system was put in place to get "the right patient to the right place at the right time." To be designated a Level IV trauma center, certain resources must be available at the facility. Initial trauma care is performed locally and then patients are transferred to a higher level of trauma care, if necessary. MWMH has access to standardized education for clinicians and procedures for a "trauma alert."

The MWMH Emergency Department serves nearly 14,000 adult and pediatric patients annually.

"It's about working together for our patients," said Susan Starling, MWMH President & CEO. "EMS, clinicians and hospital staff utilize a best-practice system that exists to get our patients the most appropriate care in the least amount of time. Time is precious when we are in traumatic situations. Patients have a better chance to survival when they are given care within the golden hour – sixty minutes within the injury."

In March 2008, Kentucky lawmakers passed House Bill 371 which established the initial framework of a statewide trauma system and the formation of the Kentucky Trauma Advisory Committee.

Lady Engineers Drop 1st District Game, 45-42

by MIKE WISEMAN
Estill Tribune Sportswriter

The Estill County Lady Engineers were looking to go a perfect 3-0 in district play as they hosted Powell Co. on Friday night. The Lsdy Pirates did not back down and were able to pull out the road win by the score of 45-41.

The Lady Engineers would get off to a hot start and and hold an early 7 point lead but Powell would put together a run of their own and hold the first quarter lead at 12-10. Both teams would trade jabs in the second quarter and despite 10 first half turnovers, Estill would find themselves tied at the half, 21-21.

The second half would continue to be a back and forth affair with neither team able to gain a large lead until halfway through the fourth quarter. Powell would see their four point lead extended to seven on a "banked in" 3-pointer and Estill's balloon would lose some air. Fighting to the very end, Estill could just not get even. The Ladies would see their record fall to 8 wins and 9 losses and their district record to 2 wins and 1 loss.

Estill County would travel to London the next day and face a very tough team in North Laurel. The Lady Jags would put up an early 28-5 first quarter lead and this game would not be in doubt the rest of the way. Estill would drop their fourth game in a row by the score of 77-43.

Estill County faces a very important stretch of their schedule over the next week as they will face three consecutive district games. Estill will travel to Lee County on Friday, then come home to face Owsley County on Tuesday night and face Powell County in Stanton on the following Friday to close out district play. The Ladies are still in the running for the title so come out and support the Lady Engineers. GO BIG BLUE!!!!

2016 Bluegrass All-Regional Band

On Sunday, December 6th, over 300 high school students from the South-eastern region of Kentucky gathered at Corbin High School to audition for placement in the Bluegrass All-Regional Band. Only the elite were awarded a place in this prestigious group, and these students represent the very best of high school music education in this part of the Commonwealth. Since the 1960's, the All-Regional Bands have existed to serve, educate, and showcase the most talented students of Southeast Kentucky's high school band programs. Earning placement in this band is a significant achievement for these students and they are to be commended for their dedication to their art. These students got the opportunity to perform under the direction of world renowned conductors Ms. Nan Moore and Mr. Richard Saucedo during a concert held on January 16th at Madison Central High School. Congratulations to these amazing musicians!.
