Marcum & Wallace Is Recognized For Quality

Marcum and Wallace Memorial Hospital (MWMH) has been recognized by iVantage Health Analytics for its accomplishments in rural healthcare quality, reflecting top performance among all rural healthcare providers across the nation. The National Organization of State Officers of Rural Health (NOSORH) and iVantage Health Analytics data shows that approximately 62 million people - nearly one in five Americans - live in rural communities throughout the United States.

Founded in 1956, MWMH is a licensed 25-bed Critical Access Hospital providing inpatient acute care, outpatient services, emergency services with a Level IV Trauma Center, and primary care with clinics in Irvine, Beattyville and Clay City. MWMH is characterized by its family-centered care, community involvement, and progressive ideas in healthcare. MWMH is recognized by Becker's Hospital Review as a top "100 Great Community Hospital." MWMH has extended the healing ministry of Jesus by improving the health of our communities for more than 50 years and is a major source of jobs for the region. MWMH has modern facilities, state-of-the-art equipment, highly-skilled professional personnel and a medical staff that offers primary care and a wide range of specialty services. MWMH is a member of Mercy Health, one of the largest Catholic healthcare systems in the nation. For more information, visit www.marcumandwallace.org

"For over fifty years, Marcum and Wallace has been an integral part of this community. And at the center of our viability are the patients we serve, so it's an honor to be recognized for quality patient care," said Susan Starling, MWMH President & CEO. "As a rural healthcare provider, we face challenges in today's healthcare environment, but we remain dedicated to providing patients in our region the highest quality care. Being recognized as a 'top quartile performer' for quality shows the commitment of our nearly 200 employees."

Blackwell Thank You

On behalf of Velma Case Blackwell, we want to thank all of those who helped at this difficult time.

We wish to express our deepest gratitude and appreciation for the care and compassion the staff at Marcum Wallace Hospital bestowed on Velma during her stay.

The floral arrangements, the delicious food, the prayers, the personal notes, the wonderful eulogy-Mark Pearson, and the music were so comforting and something we will long remember.

Your kindness has made such a difference in helping us get through this, and we hope you know how much you mean to us.

Dale Stevens

Nov. 26, 1961 -- Dec. 27, 2015

Again, we have lost a dear loved one. Lord, you said it was his time to come home to Heaven, there with my Mom, Dad, Sis & Brother. We are all heartbroken, but we know you know best, what is good for us. Take care, my Brother, in your Heavenly home. We, too, will be there soon to join them. Loving you with all our hearts.

The Stevens Family
You will be surely missed & loved

Can't Wait to go to Heaven

Wow, the Lord has taken another brother of mine to Heaven, to be with my brother Charlie, with my Dad, Mom & Sis. They are rejoicing in Heaven for the enjoyment of his arrival to join the family circle until, one day, we will all be together again.

Missing you my Brother Dale. We can't wait 'till we all all home together in Heaven.

Hugs & Kisses, The Stevens Family
He is a great uncle, brother, father and wonderful grandfather

Now the Lord has taken another brother of mine to Heaven. The others who have gone before him are enjoying that he has come to Heaven to join the Family Circle. He will surely be missed and loved always. Our younger brother Dale, we miss you and we can't wait to be with you in Heaven.

Hugs & Kisses, The Stevens Family
