Suzanne Waite got help from Sherri Humpert to sell greeting cards, rubber stamp images, paper crafts, Christmas ornaments and various decor medias at the Estill County Arts Council show on December 10th.

Gavin Sparks is a 3rd grader in Mrs. Adams' classroom. He is the WEEKLY READER of the month and has completed 25 hours of at home reading. For each hour students read outside of the classroom, they get a sticker and when they reach 25 stickers, they get a lunch from Ms. Kindred either from McDonald's or Wendy's. Gavin Sparks enjoy his McDonald's lunch for being a great WEEKLY READER! Congratulations Gavin and keep up the good work reading! Submitted by Ms. Stacey Kindred, West Irvine.

The Irvine-Ravenna Woman's Club recently decorated the Christmas tree in the dining room at the Irvine Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. This is an annual project of the club to spread love and joy to the residents. Membership is open to all women who are interested in community service to become a member. The club meets on the 4th Tuesday evening of each month and conducts a hands on project. Tina Pasley is the club president. The local club is a member of the Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs. Pictured left to right are: Faye Reece, Francine Bonny, Freda Hardy, Joan Murphy, and Yvonne Harrison, who decorated the Christmas tree at the nursing home.

"West Irvine Intermediate recently recognized these students for being named the "Students on Track for Excellence" for following the school's expectations and setting positive examples for others. Students were nominated by their teachers." (Courtesy of Sara W. Stringfield, West Irvine Intermediate FRC manager)
