Maudie's Naughties

Absent With Cause

Two older men meet with a group of other men at a local restaurant every morning where they eat breakfast, watch folks come in and discuss what's going on in the news. One day, one of the men doesn't show up. The other man thinks maybe the guy has a cold or something, so he doesn't worry. The man doesn't show up for a week, so his buddy becomes really concerned. Finally, after ten days missing, the man shows up.

"Where have you been?" asks the buddy. "We were starting to get worried."

"I've been in jail!" he replies.

"What in the world for?" asks his friend.

"That pretty, young girl next door filed charges against me, saying I took advantage of her."

"Did you do it? they all ask.

"No . . . but I was so flattered, I pleaded guilty . . . and the judge gave me 10 days for perjury."

Calling Home

A man calls his mother in Florida, "Mom, how are you?"

"Not too good," says the mother. "I've been very weak."

The son asks, "Why are you so weak?"

She replies, "Because I haven't eaten in 38 days."

The son says, "That's terrible. Why haven't you eaten in 38 days?"

"Because I didn't want my mouth to be filled with food if you should call."

Slim Gets a Physical

Uncle Slim goes to see Doc to get a physical. A few days later, Doc sees Slim walking down the street with a gorgeous young woman on his arm. So, later one, he calls Slim and says, "You're really doing great, aren't you?"

"Just doing what you said," Doc: "'Get a hot mamma and be cheerful.'"

"I didn't say that," says Doc, "I said, 'You've got a heart murmur; be careful.'"

Root Hog or Die

All of us country people know what that means, whether it pertains to the farm, or trying to get by in this bad economy. You have to have raised hogs and fed them to know the true meaning, but "Root Hog or Die" seems to have more meaning to all of us, every day. But did you know who was the first person whom the phrase was attributed to -- Davy Crockett in 1834. He reportedly said in his biography, "We know'd that nothing more could happen to us if we went than if we staid, for it looked like it was to be starvation any way; we therefore determined to go on the old saying, root hog or die."

Really Old!

Two Englishmen are reading head stones at a cemetery after an afternoon at a party. One says, "Look! There's a bloke here who was 152!"

His friend says "What's his name?"

"Miles, from London!"

Snoring Problems

Pa, Junior, Bubba and Howard Green decide to sleep two to a room on a hunting trip to Colorado. Pa and Bubba bunk together and Junior bunks with his friend Howard Green. The next morning Junior shows up for breakfast with his hair a mess and his eyes all bloodshot. "One of you has got to bunk with Howard tonight. He snores so loudly, I just sat up and watched him all night."

Bubba agrees to take his turn, but the next morning, he comes down with his hair all messed up and his eyes bloodshot. "I can't take any more," he says. "Pa, it's your turn."

The next morning, Pa comes down for breakfast all bright-eyed and bushy-tailed. "Good morning," he says.

They can't believe it! They say, "Pa, what happened?"

He says, "Well, when we got ready for bed. I went over and tucked Howard into bed and kissed him good night. He sat up and watched me all night long."

Re-Tail Services

Mitsy is weed-eating her yard and accidentally cuts off the tail of her cat which was hiding in the grass.

She gets Bambi to drive and rushes her cat, along with the tail, over to WAL-MART!

"Why WAL-MART??" says Bambi.

HELLOOOOOOOOO!

WALMART is the largest re-tailer in the world!!!
