Myrrh resin is harvested from the species Commiphora myrrha, which is native to Yemen, Somalia, Eritrea and Ethiopia. It is used medicinally to treat indigestion, ulcers, colds, cough, asthma, lung congestion, arthritis pain, cancer, leprosy, spasms and syphilis. It can be applied directly to the mouth for gum and tooth problems, and also to the skin for wounds, abrasions, and boils, as it is effective against inflammation and bacterial infection. It is also used in embalming procedures.
