

2016 Drug Court Graduation

A graduation ceremony was held on May 4th, with 4 graduates: Ida Brinegar, Stacey Wilder Carmack, Thurman Smith and Kelley Justice.

Judge Michael Dean was thanked by participants for continuing Drug Court and all his has done for the program. Former 23rd circuit Judge, Tom Jones, spoke and encouraged participants to "go deep", fight hard and set your goals high. A former participant, Ashley Watkins and her daughter, Jerrica Watkins gave a heartwarming, yet emotional speech on how Drug Court had saved their family and changed their life. Drug Court team members, Kristen Clouse, Brittany Oliver, Heather Combs, Mark Coburn and Wilma Baker were presented with certificates of appreciation.

A Recovery Walk/Rally was held at Happy Top Park, with approximately 125 in attendance. Pastor Mark Coburn, Mike Tuttle and Roger Harvey opened with the "Serenity Prayer". State Representative Cluster Howard was our guest speaker. Jessica Estes, a former participant gave her testimony on drug abuse and her sobriety. She thanked Tom Jones for allowing her to participate in the program, instead of jail. She stated "without Drug Court" she would still be in the depths of drug abuse or dead. Other entertainment included, Chad's Hope. They sang, gave testimonies on being in recovery. Proclamations were signed by Lee County Judge Executive Steve Mays and Irvine Mayor W.J. Nolan, declaring May as Drug Court Month.

Several local organization, were present. The Lee County Health Dept. helped out, by offering information about health issues. President, Cindy Feller of Cumberland Mt. Outreach had a booth for the children with free items, along with testaments. Digital Dimensions from Jackson, KY had a small job fair, with the help of Wendy Herald, a former participant. West Care, from Estill County had a booth, with information about sobriety, with Stevie Lemaster, a graduate of DC.

We raised $250.00 from our 50/50 raffle. Brenda Shuler, Lee County Circuit clerk was the winner and a big thanks to her, she donated it back to Drug Court. We now have a beautiful quilt, donated by Christine Turner and a basket of household items, donated by Greg & Ashley Watkins, we are currently, selling tickets on, for $1, if you are interested, contact me or any participant.

The Recovery Walk was led by former participants, Ashley & Greg Watkins, Travis Rice, and Sara Brennan. A cookout was enjoyed by all and we ended with a balloon release, for many years of sobriety.

In Memory of Stephen Sparks

The family of Stephen Sparks would like to personally thank each and every one, whether it be a relative, classmate, friend or friend of a family member, that came to the visitation honoring Stephen's life.

It was absolutely amazing to know Stephen was loved by so many, and touched the hearts of each one that patiently stood in line to give their final farewells. Stephen was kind to everybody and nothing but kind words were spoken in return, along with sadness and compassion. He will truly be missed by everyone that played a role in his life

This is a poem, his first cousin sent on a plaque he engraved:

Life is so precious, when you possibly can, take extra time to call or to do things with your friends or family members that mean so much to you, make memories . . .

Stephen is resting in God's comforting care. It will be heard on us all each day that goes on and each year that passes by.

Thank you to all who whispered a prayer, spent time with his friends, in a memorial, anyone who sent flowers, food, or a gift or love our way; for all the words spoken so highly of Stephen.

Kitchen Diva Salsa Adds Spice to Snapper

by ANGELA SHELF MEDEARIS

If you're looking for a way to change your favorite fish recipe, try adding salsa. The word "salsa" really just means "sauce" in Spanish.

There are many different kinds of salsa. Salsa roja is a red sauce meant to be eaten warm, usually over enchiladas. Salsa verde is a green sauce made with tomatillos. Salsa ranchera means "ranch style" and is typically made of tomatoes and chilies cooked together. There's also salsa cruda or salsa fresca. "Cruda" means "raw," and "fresca" means "fresh." You also can find commercially packaged salsas in a variety of flavors, including mango, peach and pineapple. The levels of heat of the salsas range from mild to fiery-hot.

This simple recipe uses tomatoes, bell peppers and onions to create a salsa fresca topping for snapper. You also can use this delicious sauce on other types of firm-fleshed fish.

Serve this spicy salsa snapper over angel-hair pasta, rice or cous cous. It's also delicious served on thick slices of toast that have been rubbed with a clove of garlic and brushed with olive oil.

SALSA SNAPPER

2 pounds red snapper, cod or other lean fish fillets
2 large tomatoes, chopped (2 cups)
1 medium green bell pepper, chopped (1 cup)
1 medium onion, chopped (1/2 cup)
1/4 cup finely chopped fresh cilantro or parsley
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup Progresso chicken broth (from 32-ounce carton)

1. Cut fish fillets into 8 serving pieces. Spray large non-stick skillet with cooking spray; heat skillet over medium heat.
2. Arrange fish in single layer in skillet. Cook uncovered 4 to 6 minutes, turning once, until fish flakes easily with fork. Remove fish to warm platter; keep warm.
3. Cook remaining ingredients except broth in skillet over medium heat 3 to 5 minutes, stirring frequently, until bell pepper and onion are crisp-tender. Stir in broth; heat through. Spoon tomato mixture over fish. Serves 8.
