Reagan Cole signs to cheer for ECU

Reagan Cole, the granddaughter of Wayne and Wilma Wise of Ravenna, signed a national letter of intent on May 18th to join the Eastern Kentucky University cheerleading squad. Reagan, who grew up on the ECU campus at Model Laboratory School, expressed how excited she is to have the opportunity to represent the ECU Colonels. Reagan received the Female Most Athletic Award of her graduating class after running Track and Field, Cross Country, and cheering throughout middle and high school. Upon making the decision to focus on cheerleading in college, Cole said, "I've always been an ECU fan, so I'm excited to take the next step and cheer for the Colonels." Reagan's parents, Bryan and Tammy Cole, both work at ECU and her sister Madison attends Model Laboratory School.
