8/8/98

Not a lot of hunting in this column. It's about one of the most special days of my life! 18 years ago on Aug 8, 1998 I married the love of my life. After 18 years, 6 kids, and the middle of starting two businesses we are still madly in love. There is one common denominator that we share.

When we got married I never imagined our journey would bring us here. We have six wonderful kids. We built our dream home. We are growing a small business together. My wife works her dream job as a Hospice nurse. We are truly blessed!

Our lives can be a little stressful at times. There is always somebody crying when you've got 6 kids. My wife home schools and works full time on the weekends, so now that we have started two businesses I work twice as much as I ever did. So it's safe to say it can be crazy around our place.

I have been asked how we do everything with 6 kids. We follow the lead of a higher power. The Good Lord has blessed us. It's a faith in God that we can do all things in Christ. The common dominator that my wife and I have is

For everyone who asks are you done having kids, well, we will wait and see.

I thank God daily for my wife! She puts up with the hunting. She always has my back. We are best friends. She supports me in whatever I do. We both love Jesus Christ our Savior. We make each other whole.

If you're thinking about getting married, the best advice I can give is, both of you get to know Jesus. If your marriage is struggling, then bring Jesus into it and He will fix it.

Happy Anniversary to the Love of my life!

Until next week, get out and enjoy God's creation!

We enjoyed our anniversary at Natural Bridge picnicking, swimming and hiking with the kids!!

Jesus Christ.

After 18 years of marriage I love her more and more every day. We might have our disagreements from time to time, but our faith sees us through. If I could turn back time the only thing I would change is I would have married her sooner! I look forward for another 18 years.
