Maudie's Naughties

Psychic Advisor

A frog telephones the psychic hotline and his personal psychic advisor tells him, "You're going to meet a beautiful young girl who will want to know everything about you."

The frog is thrilled, "This is great! Will I meet her at a party?"

"Nope," says his advisor, "In her biology class."

Golden Wedding Anniversary

A couple is in bed after celebrating their golden anniversary.

The wife says "Darling embrace me the way you used to when we first got married." He does.

"Now dear, kiss me the way you used to . . ."

At this point the husband gets out of the bed, so she says, "Where are you going, dear?"

"To get my teeth."

Plumber's Fee

A plumber goes to the attorney's house to unstop the sink. When he finishes, he says to the attorney, "That will be $400.00."

The attorney becomes irate. "What do you mean $400.00, you were only here 20 minutes, that's ridiculous!!"

The plumber replies, "I thought the same thing when I was an attorney."

New Animal

A farmer goes to the livestock market, and there's a zebra for sale, cheap. So, the farmer buys it and takes it to his farm.

The zebra can't figure out what the farmer wants it for, so he asks various other animals what they are for.

The turkey tells him that he'll be fattened up and used for Thanksgiving dinner.

That doesn't sound too good to the zebra, so he asks the milk cow what she does.

Well, the cow tells him she gets milked every day until she can't give milk anymore, then she will go to the market to be sold for hamburger meat or dog food.

That doesn't sound too good to the zebra either, so it asks the bull what he does.

"Take off those pajamas," says the bull, "And I'll show you."

True Confession

An older couple is talking about the past when the wife asks, "John, now tell me how many women have you been with in your life?"

John replies, "If I tell you, you'll get mad."

"No, I won't," replies his wife.

John, "I'm sure you will, so I better not tell you."

Wife, "John, I promise that I'll not get mad, but I would like to know."

She keeps it up until John says, "All right, I'll tell you but you better not get angry with me. First it was in high school with Elaine, then it was Francis, Marybelle, Shirley, my first wife, then you, and then . . . (She'll be eligible for parole soon!)"

Anything You Want

Some friends of an old gentleman decide to get him something special for his birthday, so they buy him a call girl. She goes to his house and knocks on the door. Upon opening it, she says, "Hi, I am your birthday present."

He responds, "What am I supposed to do with you?"

"Super sex," she answers.

"Well, I'm 90 years old," he replies, "I'll take the soup!"

Golden Years

An old couple is sitting on the porch one evening when the wife suddenly slaps the man.

"What was that for?" he asks.

"That was for 50 years of poor sex," she says.

Things are quiet for awhile, then the man slaps her.

"What was that for?" she asks.

"That was for you knowing it was poor."

Cold Weather

Some folks up Needmore Hollow call Pa and ask if there is going to be a cold winter or not. Not really knowing an answer, Pa replies that winter is going to be cold and the folks up Needmore should get lots of wood to be prepared. A day or two later, they call Pa again and ask whether it's going to be a really cold winter or not. Pa tells them, "Yes, it's going to be really cold. You need to gather up a much wood as possible to get ready."

Later, Pa gets to wondering whether he was giving them good advice or not, so he calls up the television station and asks them whether it's going to be a really cold winter. "Yes," they reply. "The folks up Needmore are gathering wood like crazy."

Letter to the Secretary

Estill County Workforce Center for Training and Education

Secretary Hal Heiner, Education and Workforce Development,

As Superintendent of the Estill County School System, the reason for my letter today is to express the full support of the Estill County Board of Education and our school community for the new Estill County Workforce Center for Training and Education. We believe that this project meets the goals of the Work Ready Skills Initiative and this new center will help provide highly skilled workers for our community for years to come.

The Estill County Workforce Center for Training and Education would be designed to provide education to current high school students, as well as adults in our county and surrounding communities that desire initial training or need retraining for opportunities that require highly skilled training.

Our board is currently discussing opportunities to garner the resources necessary to implement STEM education initiatives for our students along with Informational Technology pathways. Both areas are a clear need as we prepare students for the jobs of the future in our state and nation. Training and certification in other careers such as plumbing, electrical, welding, mechanics and nursing, to name a few, could be offered at this facility. Job specific training for area factories, hospitals and other entities would also be explored as well in order to meet the demands of the current workforce needs.

We are excited about having a facility to educate our workforce located within our county. The school system stands ready to financially support the construction of a new facility that will meet the needs of our students and adults from our county and surrounding communities. We are willing to form partnerships with local colleges, such as Bluegrass Community and Technical College and EKU, and build relationships with local business, the community and local and state leaders. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at any time.

Respectfully,
Jeff Saylor,
Superintendent
Estill County Schools
