

Earl Barnes, musician, and the Becknerville Travelers visit Morning Pointe of Richmond every third Saturday, sharing their talents for homegrown bluegrass and gospel music. As part of the Life Enrichment Program, the senior living community invites musicians of all types to share their talents with the residents. Earl is a former band mate of Leonard Abner, Morning Pointe resident who passed away earlier this year. The senior living community learned about Earl through Leonard, and since Earl and his band perform every month for all the residents to enjoy. Earl has performed with Renfro Valley alongside the likes of Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs. And Madison County residents remember his Saturday night shows at Four Mile Avenue in the stockyard show ring. He has written and recorded more than 200 songs, given more than 400 radio performances and has been on stage in festivals all over the country. Earl recently received the honor of being registered with the Kentucky Music Hall of Fame at Renfro Valley and will be inducted soon. He was born in Madison County but lived much of his early life in Estill County before returning to Madison.

Nicolaus Copernicus was the first astrologer to say that the sun was at the center of the universe. He has received great acclaim for that observation. He also said that "if the first button of your coat is buttoned wrong, all the rest will be out of place." Same person, two dramatically different observations. However, few have ever heard of his observation about buttoning a coat.

"O God," said David, "You are my God. Earnestly I seek You." Much like buttoning a coat, if we begin a day earnestly seeking God, everything else will end up as it should. Each day we live is a new gift from God and a new adventure. It leads us on paths that we have never walked before and brings sights to our eyes and sounds to our ears that we have never experienced before. For every day to be God-honoring and Christ-exalting it is essential that we begin it with the Lord in prayer and in reading His Word. If we want Him to guide us and guard us and keep us from temptation, we must go to Him in faith, believing that He will protect us.

"Earnestly seeking Him" means that our faith is not a past-time, part-time, sometime "thing" in our life. Copernicus, you will recall, recognized that the sun was the center of the universe and every planet revolved around it. If God is not at the center of our lives, we cannot expect peace and harmony, balance and control. He promised that "He will never leave us nor forsake us." Unfortunately, it is us who leave and forsake Him.

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

Detail of "Prayer of Manasseh" (1929) by Hester Sainsbury

When Manasseh was in affliction, he implored the Lord, the God of his fathers, and humbled himself greatly in prayer. The Lord received his entreaty, heard his supplication, and brought him back to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the Lord was God.
