

Twenty From Estill Named to 36th Annual "Youth Salute"

Twenty Estill County students are among 816 high school juniors from 52 high schools in Central Kentucky that are being recognized in this year's "Youth Salute". The 36th Annual Awards Ceremony was held in their honor on Sunday, May 8, 2016, at Asbury University.

A top Youth Leader was named for each high school, as well as "Youth Leaders of the Year." Six all-expense paid trips to the National Leadership Workshop in St. Louis were announced along with $70,000 in scholarships and other awards. Asbury University, Eastern Kentucky University and Georgetown College each provided $20,000 in scholarships.

Private businesses provided an additional $10,000 in scholarships and other awards. A leadership seminar was held for all the students the same day as the awards ceremony.

Samantha Puckett was named at the "Top Youth Leader" from Estill County and she received the Star Award provided by Holifield Photography. Puckett was also awarded one of five $4,000 scholarships provided by Eastern Kentucky University. She was also among five students who received $100.00 as Leadership Award winners, which is provided by Central Bank & Trust Co.

The Central Kentucky Council on Youth Leadership was formed in 1980 to conduct the "Youth Salute" in nearby counties in cooperation with the National Council on Youth Leadership, a non-profit organization.

Students were nominated by teachers, guidance counselors and principals for this year's "Youth Salute".

In order to qualify, the student had to be a junior (senior class of 2017), have a 3.0 G.P.A. or better and have held at least two (2) leadership roles to which they were chosen by their peers or an adult leader within the past two years in school, religious or community sponsored organizations.

Holifield Photography (Lexington) photographed each student nominated and created a display, including a biographical sketch, which is hosted in your community and the students' high school. Individual displays of Central Kentucky high schools are shown at Fayette Mall in Lexington.
