Motel Stay

A couple is traveling by car from Michigan to Key West, Florida. After many hours on the road, they decide to stop for a rest at a motel near Atlanta. They sleep for about four hours and are ready to get back on the road. When they go to check out, the desk clerk hands them a bill for $350.00.

The man explodes and demands to know why the charge is so high. He tells the clerk although it's a nice hotel, the rooms certainly aren't worth $350.00.

The clerk explains that the hotel has an Olympic-sized pool and a huge conference center.

"But we didn't use them," the man complains.

"Well, they are here, and you could have."

The clerk goes on to explain they could have taken in one of the shows for which the hotel is famous. "The best entertainers from New York, Hollywood and Las Vegas perform here."

"But we didn't go to any of those shows!" says the man.

"Well, we have them, and you could have," says the clerk, and goes on to tell of all the other things available at the motel.

Each time, the man says, "But we didn't use them!" and the clerk replies, "Well, they are here, and you could have."

Finally, the man writes out a check and hands it to the clerk.

The clerk looks at the check and says, "But, sir, this check is only made out for $50.00."

"That's correct," says the man. "I charged you $300.00 for sleeping with my wife."

"But I didn't!" exclaims the clerk.

Well," the man replies. "She was here, and you could have."

Job Applicant

Mujibar is applying for a job. He has passed all of the tests except one. The resource officer tells him, "Make a sentence using the words, yellow, pink and green."

Mujibar thinks for a few minutes and says, "The telephone goes 'green, green . . . green, green . . . green, green. I pink it up and say, 'Yellow, this is Mujibar.'"

He got the job. You've probably spoken to him. He's the guy you talk to when you call about problems with your computer.

Jumping the Broomstick

Howard Green stops by to give Pa some good news.

"Pa," says Howard, "Have you heard? I may be getting married to that girl I've been seeing from over in town."

"Is that so?" says Pa. "Well, I'd think really hard on that one before I made any moves. From what I hear, she's already been married seven times."

"Well, actually, eight," says Howard. "But she says this one is the real thing."

"Well, I'm not so sure about that," says Pa. "From what I hear, she's caught her own bouquet at her last two weddings."

New Rooster

Farmer Green's old rooster dies, so he goes down the creek to a farm that raises a lot of chickens. The guy there tells him, he has just the one. He shows Green a rooster named Floyd and tells Green that Floyd will handle the situation.

Floyd the rooster costs a lot of money, but Greens buys him anyway and takes him back to the farm where he sets him out in the barnyard. Floyd immediately takes off after the hens. Green feels like everything will be okay, but when he comes back in the afternoon, Floyd is still chasing the hens and is trying to get into the pen with the ducks.

"Floyd," says Green. "You'd better slow yourself down. You're not going to last at this rate."

Sure enough, the next morning, Floyd is nowhere to be found. Green searches out in the field and sees his high-priced rooster's body stretched out in the grass with buzzards circling around overhead.

"Floyd," says Green. "I told you to pace yourself. I tried to get you to slow down, now look what you've done to yourself."

Floyd opens one eye, nods toward the vultures circling in the sky and says, "Shhh! They're getting closer."

Window Shopping

Trixie and Barbi are shopping at Fayette Mall and stop by a jewelry store where they are admiring a gorgeous diamond bracelet in a showcase.

"Beautiful, isn't it?" says Trixie "But who on earth would be fool enough to pay ninety thousand for it?"

"I don't know," says Barbie, "But, I'll find him!"

Irvine Police Department Activity Report

A bench warrant was served Oct. 3 on Bertha L. Jones, 46, of Reese Street, Irvine by Irvine Police Sgt. John Sturniolo.

District Court Judge Bo Leach issued the warrant. Jones was found guilty of drug paraphernalia - buy/possess on March 15 and failed to pay a fine and/or court costs.

The judge set her bond at $198.00 cash.

A bench warrant signed by Judge Earl Neal of Madison District Court was served on Zayne Estep, 21, of Hood Avenue, Irvine by Officer Jason Conrad on Oct. 3.

The warrant says that Estep failed to appear on Sept. 17 to answer charges of carrying a concealed weapon and two counts of contempt of court.

Judge Neal set bail for Estep at $500 cash.

A Madison County bench warrant was served Oct. 3 by Officer Brian Cloyd on Jena L. Combs, 31, of Richmond.

Circuit Judge Jean Logue issued the warrant because Combs allegedly violated her probation. No bail was set.

An Estill District Court bench warrant was served on Anita K. Edmonson, 6, of Stacy Lane, Irvine on Oct. 7 by Officer Cloyd.

The warrant says she was found guilty on Feb. 11, 2015 of receiving stolen property and had failed to pay $238.

Judge Leach set her bail at $238.

The officer also served a bench warrant from Fayette District Court on Edmonson. She was found guilty on Dec. 11, 2014 of theft by unlawful taking or disposition.

Judge M. Thornton says she failed to appear in court and set her bail at $354.00 cash

Steven R. Campbell, 40, of Richmond, Indiana, was arrested Oct. 8 by Officer Cloyd on two bench warrants from Estill District Court.

The first warrant says Campbell failed to appear to answer charges of possession of a controlled substance, first degree, first offense, promoting contraband, second degree, possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia - buy/possess.

The second warrant was also issued for his failure to appear before Judge Leach on charges of operating on a suspended or revoked license and speeding 10 mph over limit.

Judge Leach did not set bail for Campbell.

October brings the annual Woolly Worm Festival

About this time every year Lee County folks start decorating Beattyville and getting ready for the arrival of the Woolly Worm or Woolly Bear Caterpillar. This fuzzy little brown and black caterpillar is the larva stage of the Isabella Moth. It is also Appalachia's most celebrated winter weather prognosticator and certainly the only one with a festival in its honor. This year's dates are October 20, 21 and 22.

The 30th Annual Lee County Woolly Worm Festival will feature almost non-stop live music, good food, drinks, crafts and flea market booths, a pet show, a great parade at 1 p.m. Saturday, daily woolly worm races, and the last big car show of the season on Sunday. The show features a top 100 trophies, Best of Show etc. and D. J. Charlie Napier.

James Otto will headline this year's festival on Saturday night at 8 p.m. at the Main Stage. Others entertaining will be the Moron Brothers, Appalachian Troubadours, Bobby Osborne and Higher Vision and lots more. An entertainment schedule will be forthcoming.

Contact persons: Linda Smith Chair @ 606-464-2888; Entertainment Lisa Caudill @ 606-359-5751 or Mike Johnson @859-582-9534; Car Show Josh Smith at 606-464-2888; Parade Don Begley @ 606-464-2961.

VA Grants Boost Adaptive Sports

VETERANS POST by Freddy Groves

An estimated 10,000 disabled veterans are expected to benefit from the $8 million in grants that the Department of Veterans Affairs will award to sports programs for 2018. Groups in all 50 states will get a cut of the money to use in planning, managing and implementing their programs.

These programs range from city and regional sports, community groups, and parks and rec to sports clinics, wheelchair games and golf tournaments ... even preparation for Paralympic competition.

Here are just a few of the sports the grants have covered: triathlon, table tennis, basketball, rowing, martial arts, swimming, rafting, wheelchair rugby, archery, judo, climbing, fishing, soccer, powerlifting and slalom.

This year the grants covered events in both summer (kayaking, surfing, sailing) and winter (skiing, curling, hockey), sports clinics, Golden Age games (seniors over age 55), bowling, shooting and cycling, a creative arts festival and wheelchair games. The programs offered get bigger every year.

Interested in participating? For one thing, it's a lot of fun, and you'll meet others with the same challenges, goals and determination. If you think you're not quite up to it yet, talk to your clinical team about what you can do to get ready to participate in adaptive programs.

And just so you know ... a new study of adaptive sports found that benefits included increased employment, self-confidence and a peer-education system. Add in independence, reduced need for pain and depression medication and fewer secondary medical conditions, and it's worth checking out.

To learn more, go online to www.va.gov/adaptivesports. If you'll be training at the Paralympic level, there is a monthly stipend to help with expenses, if you qualify. Check the website for details.
