Hall Thank You

The Family of Zelma Lee Adams Hall would like to express its sincere thanks to Hospice Compassionate Care Center, Richmond, and to the Estill County Senior Citizens Center for the wonderful care she received before her recent death. She received excellent supportive care from the staff at Hospice, while the Estill County Senior Citizens Center allowed her to remain at home as long as possible, which was her wish, by providing personal care with our family's support.

Special thanks especially to Tamara Flynn and Kathy Holmes for the wonderful care she received. Donations are suggested to support either of these two outstanding organizations.
