Gun Season

You might have noticed I didn't have a column last week. It was because my family was in the Big Mouse City or also known as Disney World. I got caught up in the City of the Mouse and forgot to send in a column. I am back and getting ready for gun season. Hoping I might have a chance at a monster buck!

The time is at hand that some us think about all year. Opening day of gun season is Saturday. The weather is shaping up to get deer moving. I think the bucks will be chasing Saturday morning. It should be on for the opener.

Several of the deer I have shot somehow just spontaneously appear out of thin air. I looked down from the stand and nothing. Blink my eyes and there is deer. It always makes me think how in the world did you just sneak in. I remember several years ago I was hunting a big open cut cornfield. I looked the field over and nothing. I looked away for less than a minute and 6 deer were standing 50 yards in front of me. How do they do that?

1 Peter 5:8 King James Version (KJV)

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

The crafty devil is like those deer that just show up without you seeing him walk in. If you let your guard down for a second, he is standing right next to you. If you take your eyes off Jesus for a millisecond he will be right in the stand with you. Staying in the Word and prayer will keep the devil from sneaking in and devouring you.

To all the hunters headed out Saturday morning I wish you the best. Be safe in the woods. Wear your hunter orange and if you are in a stand be sure to wear that safety harness. Take a few minutes to soak in God's creation. Give thanks that you can set and enjoy his creation.

Until next week get out and enjoy God's creation!
