

Beverly Miller, age 91, attended the Veterans Memorial Service on Monday at Veterans Memorial Park. Miller is a veteran of World War II. He has taken the Honor Flight to the nation's capitol and encourages other veterans to do also.

A bell was rung each time the name of a veteran was read who had died in the last year.

The Honor Guard of Post 79, American Legion saluted during the ceremony on Monday. Memorial Day was started to remember service men and women who had died in the line of duty. Today, many use it to remember their deceased family and friends.

LEFT PHOTO: Girl Scouts from Troop 661 placed American flags on the graves of veterans on Saturday morning. The girls also took an active part in the ceremony at Veterans Memorial Park. During the last month, they have also greeted veterans as they returned from Honor Flights to Washington, D.C.

Boy Scouts from Troop 89 and their leaders saluted the America Flag during its pledge and the National Anthem sang by Jessica Dennis and her daughter. Girl Scouts from Troop 661 were also present. The Scouts placed America flags on the graves of veterans on Saturday.

Sara Griffin, daughter of Andrea Griffin, recently celebrated her 8th birthday with an act of kindness. Sara's love of animals led her to request supplies for the local group Peaceful Paws in place of receiving birthday gifts. She was able to donate food, treats, and other much needed supplies to the rescue group. Sara's friend Kyndsee Baxter is on the left and Sara is on the right.
