

Students from Mrs. Bledsoe's 2nd Grade Classroom at Estill Springs Elementary led the school in a Penny Drive to raise money for the victims of the recent hurricanes. Mrs. Bledsoe's students set a goal of raising $500, but they exceeded their goal and raised over $600!!! Mrs. Bledsoe said the students helped to count the money and turned this opportunity into a great learning experience!

The Estill County Engineers sophomore defensive end Micah Swim (#14, blue) blocked a Bath County Wildcat on Friday night during 1st quarter. Estill lost to the Wildcats in a close one, 32-30.
