

ABOVE & BELOW: The Railroad Festival parade kicked off around 10 a.m. on Saturday morning as children of all ages rode bicycles and power wheels down Main Street in Ravenna.

Haylee Brooks won first place in her age division for the best painted pumpkin at the Railroad Festival.

Bass Fishing Team Holds First Tournament

*Estill County High School Bass Team
College Hill, Waco KY, Sept 16th 2017*

The Estill County High School Bass Team had their first tournament on Saturday, September 16, 2017. The tournament winners, at left, were Chase Rawlins and Caleb Aldridge with a 5.17 lb bass. The bass team consists of over 20 members and was started in 2016 by Steven Tipton. (Photo submitted)

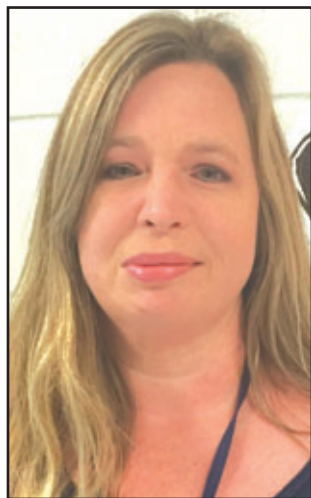

Estill County Middle School Student of the Week

Kylah Covey

The Estill County Middle School Youth Services Center Student of the Week is Kylah Covey. She is the daughter of Bryan and Traci Covey. Kylah is currently in the 6th grade and enjoys playing softball and hanging out with her friends and family. Students receiving this recognition are nominated by staff members at the Estill County Middle School for exemplary behavior, attitude, and/or citizenship.

Staff Member of the Week

Kim Ritchie

The Estill County Middle School Youth Services Center Staff Member of the Week is Kim Ritchie. She teaches 7th grade Social Studies and enjoys her job because middle school students are the best. Staff members receiving this recognition are nominated by students at the Estill County Middle School for exemplary behavior, attitude, and/or citizenship.

Local artists Sandy Savage and JoEtta Palmer judged the pumpkins painted by children at the Railroad Festival.

The Estill County Marching Band in their winning performance at Pulaski County