

The Estill County Engineers Pep Band are directed by assistant Alex Britton as they liven up the game between the Engineers and the Lee County Bobcats.

Lee County freshman guard Keagan Wilder was no match against Estill senior center Andrew Doty as he fouls Doty going to the basket during last Friday's no-contest game between the Engineers and the Bobcats.

Estill 4th grade girls placed runner-up in the Girls Winter Jam in Richmond, over the weekend. Their only loss came to Central KY Sparg. Estill beat Whitley County by 13 (a team that beat them by 20 last year) and beat the Heat out of Richmond by 19 in the Semi finals. Left to right, front row: Kadara Skinner, Ava Hale, Miley Wilburn, Callee Snowden, Lexi Tiller, Jayci Long, Madison Cole, Mila Walling. Back: head coach Shaun Hale and assistant coach Larry Tiller. (Photo courtesy of Shaun Hale)

Estill junior forward Amy Brewer (#14) controlled the lane on offense and defense, scoring 18 points and grabbing 18 rebounds against the Lady Indians of Montgomery County on Saturday. At left is junior guard Kiely Flynn and at right is junior Meagan Bellamy.

Estill junior Jerry O'Hair shoots over the Lee County Bobcats

VOTE

Elizabeth Henry

WALLING

COUNTY CLERK

Fully qualified to perform the duties of this office

- 4 years experience in Estill County Clerk's Office
- 15 years experience working with Estill County Board of Elections
- Master's Degree in Business Administration
- 17 years experience of serving the community at Marcum & Wallace Hospital

VOTE for EXPERIENCE

Paid for by Elizabeth Henry Walling