My name is Dwight Richardson and it is with great pleasure that I announce my Republican candidacy for the office of Estill County Judge Executive.

I was born and raised in Estill County and am a 1986 graduate of Estill County High School. My parents are Margie Lutes Richardson and the late Harry Earl Richardson, who both worked at Carhartt. I have one sister, Michelle Richardson, and a special father-figure, Hubert Johnson.

I have been married to Kim Griffin-Richardson for twenty-two years. She is the daughter of Pat Griffin and the late Price Griffin. We have two wonderful daughters: Sydney, who is a senior at the University of Kentucky, and Karlee, who is a freshman at Estill County High School.

I am an employee at the Estill County Water District where I have been the Operations Manager since 2007. Formerly, I was employed at Irvine Municipal Utilities and I have been a farmer all of my life. I have ten years of experience in working with the local government, and I work throughout the county each day. I have been able to see the needs of our county.

I pledge to you, the citizens of Estill County, to be an honest, hardworking, full-time judge-executive.
