“Stained Glass Bluegrass” Ravenna Christian Church Introduces a Gospel Hour

Just as with so many churches across our nation, particularly in small rural communities like ours, Ravenna Christian Church has experienced a slow, inexorable decline in its membership over the years as young people move away and older members pass away.

Pastor Tony White and the church members are determined to reverse that trend. They want to find ways to revitalize the church and make it more relevant in an age when there are so many distractions that separate people from their faith and their attendance at church.

This is especially challenging in appealing to a younger generation who may lack the tradition of attending church at all. Gone are the days when the church was the center of people's social and spiritual lives with weekly church services, church suppers, church teas and countless other church sponsored events.

To counter this trend, Ravenna Christian Church will be introducing a gospel singing event with the hope that events like this will appeal to people of all ages and faiths and restore those cherished connections to our churches.

The Ravenna Christian

Church will sponsor a gospel singing hour on Sunday, April 7 at 4:00 p.m. at the church, located at the corner of 7th Street and Elm Street in Ravenna. It is open to all who love gospel singing, regardless of faith or church affiliation.

The featured singer will be Lee Allen of Pine Ridge, Kentucky, who formerly played with the iconic Ralph Stanley and the Clinch Mountain Boys.

Lee is an outstanding singer and instrumentalist and the Church hopes that this event will be well received and lay the foundation for many gospel singings in the future.
