

Be Alert! Be Watchful!

by Dawn Reed

"Be alert and be watchful. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour"

-- 1 Peter 5:8.

We were in Kenya on a mission trip. The day had started out wonderfully.

Our guest house served breakfast every morning. Each day we had basic breakfast food along with some Kenyan favorites. And . . . there was a special plate with tasty sweets. On this morning, small pieces of delicious pound cake were perfectly placed on a white platter. I chose one and poured myself a second cup of coffee. All at once, I heard a Christmas song playing from their sound system! I LOVE Christmas AND pound cake! I said loudly to anyone who would listen, "This is gonna' be the BEST DAY EVER!"

After breakfast, we headed to Hope Church for a medical clinic and to World Hope Academy.

This morning, I was partnered with Brittany and Brecca (sisters from FL) to do activities with the students at WHA. On the way there, I saw them standing at the church's in-house coffee shop. They encouraged me to get something before we trekked to the school. Holy Smokes, yes! I ordered my very favorite hot beverage: a CARMEL MACCHIATO! And then...as I took the first sip...one of my favorite praise and worship songs played overhead. WHAT?! "This really IS gonna' be the BEST DAY EVER!" I said it several times to several people.

One of the girls in the clinic wanted a cappuccino so I hurried back to the coffee shop to get her one. BEST DAY EVER would surely include SHARING!

I was on my way to the school, passed the coffee shop again and heard my VERY, VERY FAVORITE worship song overhead. I put my hand on my heart and closed my eyes as I walked. This was too good!

I wasn't alert. I wasn't watching.

Someone had mopped and the floor was wet. When my rubber shoes made contact with the wet marble, I, too, quickly made the marble. I hit hard. Steve, a teammate and my neighbor at home, rushed to help me. He thought I had hit my head. Thankfully I hadn't, but I had landed on my hip that had been replaced several years ago. I was sore right away but walked on to the school praying nothing would be horribly wrong.

I found Brittany and Brecca in a classroom singing songs with the students. The kids lit up with every story, song and activity. After going to several classes, we walked back to the church for lunch. I had cheese pizza-my favorite!

This BEST DAY EVER was the day I was scheduled to share a devotion in the afternoon with the third-eighth grade girls at WHA. (I had bronchitis when I left home and had barely been able to talk the whole week.) People at home and my teammates were praying for me on THIS DAY. They were praying especially that I would have the voice to share. And I did! Praise the Name of the Lord! The ONLY DAY I could fully speak was THIS DAY, this BEST DAY EVER.

I shared my testimony with the girls and then one of my favorite Bible stories. Sitting on the ground in a semi-circle they listened well. Before we finished, we did hand motions to "Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid; for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go," Joshua 1:9 - my very favorite verse!

The devil is our enemy. He is a loser. He distracts. He destroys. He waits and watches for ways to bring us down, literally. He fights every good thing, every God thing. So expect it. Be alert and be watchful, but don't be scared!

We can be strong and courageous THIS DAY and every day, because the LORD our God is with us!
