

Moonlight Market Presentation

A wonderful crowd turned out for the Moonlight Market Friday, August 2. Many filtered into the Estill County Historical and Genealogical Society Museum for a remarkable presentation. Dr. Jerry Rose and Jerry Eltzroth shared the current progress of an upcoming book spanning 225 years of Sand Hill and Witt Springs history. ECH&GS would like to thank both gentlemen for their time and hard work in preserving the stories and history of our beautiful county.

Information, stories and pictures about the Sand Hill/Witt Springs families that can be provided will be helpful. Pictures that you have can easily be scanned, or you may prefer to scan them and e-mail them. If you wish to provide articles, they can be re-typed, or can be sent electronically as a word document. Dr. Jerry Rose can be reached at jpprose@hotmail.com or by phone at 859-608-0931. Jerry Eltzroth can be reached at bonniejerryeltzroth@yahoo.com or by phone at 606-723-7138.

Library Happenings

Estill Public Library

by Shannon Horn

Well Summer Reading is officially over! It is crazy to think about how nervous I was when this summer started, but I can say now that I am thrilled with the results of the summer. From June to the end of July we saw over 1,600 in our programs. That is amazing! I had such a blast. I asked the kids at our wrap-up what their favorite part of summer was and I got some great answers. The Reptile Zoo was a popular program, some enjoyed the princess story-time, but a few funny ones said that lunch was their favorite.

Special Thanks

I just want to take a moment to recognize everyone that had a part in our Summer Reading. So thank you to our program participants: The Irvine Fire Department, The Irvine Police Department, The Kentucky State Police, Irvine Community Television, Hardy Oil, Citizen's Guaranty Bank, Joey Dobson, Miles Dobson, Gleam and Glow Princess Services, The Kentucky Reptile Zoo, The Living Arts & Science Center of Lexington, Triple Threat Magic, Octavia

Sexton and Sky Byrd, Brad Holman, Warren Rogers, Sandy Savage, Diane Johnson, and Mike Arnold.

A thank you to our summer Pickin' in the Park performers: Michael Stallings, Chris and Jenn Shouse, Eddie Hughes, Donovan Howard, Better than Yesterday, Aaron Boyd, Cameron White, Ethan Hunt, Jen Richardson, Troy Estes, Grayson Jenkins, Grits & Soul, Josh Richardson and Geno Seale.

And a thank you to those who made donations: The Wigwam, Warren Toler Funeral Home, Carhartt, The Kiwanis Club of Irvine, Irvine-Ravenna Women's Club, Citizen's Guaranty Bank -

And I want to give a special shout out to all of the people who came and participated in our programs. We are so grateful to have a wonderful community that supports our programming.

August Programs

Our August calendar has been printed and is ready for pick-up. August 5th through the 9th there will be no children's or teens' programming. I'm taking a break after Summer Reading to get ahead on planning programs for the fall. I'll tell you about some of the programs that we will be having in August.

Boo-Hoo Breakfast

If you have a child going into preschool our second Boo-Hoo breakfast will be on the 9th from 7:30 to 9:30. We will be serving a continental style breakfast in the meeting room of the library. There will also be resources available about how the library can help you. Also, we will have lots of tissues available, just in case.

Walk Slim

Walk Slim will be returning August 5th. The time has changed from 4:30 to 5:30. It will be every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The meeting room will also be available in the mornings from 9:00 to 10:00, with the exception of Thursday, for anyone who would like to come in the mornings instead.

Crafternoon with Sandy Savage

On August 14th, Sandy Savage will be back with us for another Crafternoon session. She will be teaching perspective. You don't have to sign up for this class, just show up and we will have a seat for you! This class begins at 1:30.

Angela Crow Book Signing

Estill native, Angela K. Crow will be here on August 16th for a book signing and meet and greet. She is the founder of Faith Walk Ministries Inc. and is a certified Christian life coach. She will be here at 6:00. This is free and open to all ages. If you have any questions call the library at 723-3030.

That's all for this week! Come grab an August calendar. We'd love to see you.
